MORE EVIDENCE.

It is Coming Rapidly in Pendleton. Evidence on the following subject will prove of interest to every Pendleton reader. So many people go through the same experience daily. This public statement should be proof positive to every wavering doubter. Read it carefully.

Mrs. C. C. Hendrick, a wife of C. C. Hendricks, Insurance agent living at 408 West Court street, says: "When I first heard of Doan's Kidney Pills I had been suffering for over a year with pains in my loins and back and with a weakness of the kidneys, and I therefore decided at once to try the pills. I got a box at the Brock & McComas Co. drug store. Now I don't want to say that they have entirely cured me, for the trouble may return some time in the future, but they entirely relieved me the backache and up to this time I have had no return of the trouble. Only the other day I told a lady friend who is suffering from kidney trouble to try them and have recommended them to others. I shall continue to do so."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.

BULGARIA'S BIRTH

HAS BEEN A NATION TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

Treaty of Berlin Was Signed July 13, 1878—Short History of the Events Leading Up to Severing Bulgaria From Turkey—Monument to Alexander II.

Sofia, July 13.—Today Bulgaria celebrated the anniversary of her birth as a nation by the unveiling, near the battlefield of Plevena, of the splendid national mausoleum recently completed. The structure, the foundation stone of which was laid some time ago, stands upon the spot where Czar Alexander II narrowly escaped capture by the Turks.

The siege of Plevena was one of the most memorable in history. Soon after the severe battle at Shipka Pass, following the outbreak of the Russo-Turkish war of 1877, Osman Pasha, the Turkish commander, with 56,000 men, was for the third time assaulted by the Russians at Plevena. On September 6, and for three days following, the 250 guns of the Russian batteries poured a tremendous fire upon the redoubts commanding the town. Then followed an assault which proved to be one of the bloodiest struggles of the century. Of the 60,000 Russians who charged the redoubts, 18,000 were either killed or wounded. The Turks also suffered heavily.

The Siege of Plevena.

As it was found that the position of the Turks was impregnable, General Gurko, the Russian commander, decided on a siege. The work of investment was entrusted to General Todleben, who, by the beginning of December, had Plevena shut in by the Russian lines. Soon afterward Osman Pasha attempted to cut through the investing lines, but was driven into the town. By degrees the Turks were reduced to almost starvation and obliged to capitulate.

What followed is matter of history. Just as the Russians had made clear the way to Constantinople, the European powers interposed and forced a peace. By the terms of the treaty signed in Berlin on July 13, 1878, Bulgaria was constituted an autonomous principality, and it was in celebration of this event that the great mausoleum, dedicated to Czar Alexander II—the savior of Bulgaria, as the Bulgarians term him—was unveiled today in the presence of Prince Ferdinand and the chief military and civic dignitaries of the principality.

With a view of exciting a general interest in the monument, prizes were offered to the architects of the country. The design of M. Koltcheff was adjudged the best, and he was also entrusted with its erection.
