BARNHARTS BOUND OVER.

Attempted Rape and Took Whiskey on the Umatilla Reservation.

Allen Barnhart was brought before the court of Commissioner John Haley this afternoon and charged with taking liquor into the reservation. He was held to the next session of the federal grand jury under $200 bonds, which he says he will furnish. His cousin, Alfred, who was implicated in the same offense, and who was examined a day or so ago, is also looking for bonds today and will perhaps get them.

The case is a mixed one and shows one of the peculiarities of the laws governing the Indians. The two Barnharts came to town and in some manner procured several bottles of whiskey besides what they drank before starting for home. Having tanked up well they started for the reservation and on the way overtook Annie Newcom and Alleeawalla, two Indian women, whom they invited to drink with them. The women refused and the men then pulled the younger one from her horse and attempted to rape her.

The two women fought the men off and came to the city and swore out a complaint against them. But there is no provision in the law governing the Indians under which they could be held unless the crime had been accomplished. Therefore, the first complaint had to be dismissed and the one for the violation of the liquor law brought into play.

Toolaletsa, an Indian, was also arrested and examined for the larceny of a clock and a hat from one of the camps on the reservation and was held to await the action of the federal grand jury.

Freight Car Robbed.

An O. R. & N. way car which arrived from Portland last night was broken open and robbed some time during the night, near the stockyards. So far as is known now, two boxes of smoking tobacco, belonging to parties out of town, were taken. The empty boxes were found near the car this morning. The town is full of hoboes and it will be well nigh impossible to locate the stolen tobacco, as two boxes would not make more than a pipeful around for all the gentry here now.

POLICE COURT AFFAIRS.

Two Boys Found Guilty of Being Drunk and Disorderly.

This morning C. R. McLyman, the leader of the orchestra that has charge of the dances being held in the big tent on the island, swore out a warrant for the arrest of Bud Summers and Miles Durham, charging them with being drunk and disorderly at the dance last night. The boys were arrested at the tent last night and were tried this morning and found guilty, the court sentencing them each to two days in jail. Summers is 18 years of age and the other boy is but 16.

W. E. Rose was arrested this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly conduct and was allowed to go under $10 bail till the court has time to try him, as its time is now entirely occupied in the consideration of the civil case involving the ownership of a colt.

TAKEN TO PORTLAND.

Joe Bailey Subject to Hallucinations Since He Lost His Eye.

Joe Bailey, who suffered the loss of one of his eyes from a spark flying into it from a piece of hot steel that he was welding some time ago, was taken to Portland this morning by C. P. Davis, where he will be placed under the care of a specialist.

For several days Mr. Bailey has been growing worse and has been subject to queer spells, in which it seemed as though he were floating through space apart from his body. This is the result of the shock of the accident to the nervous system, and it was determined to take him to Portland, where there were better facilities for his treatment than are to be found here.

SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Well-Known Music Teacher Seeks Dissolution of Marriage Relation.

A suit for divorce was filed yesterday by Helen M. Marston through her attorney, James A. Fee, against James A. Marston.

The complaint alleges gross and habitual drunkenness and abuse and threats of bodily harm and death as the cause for action. It further alleges non-support for the past five years.

The plaintiff prays for an order dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing, for the care and custody of the minor child, for an order restraining the defendant from interfering with the plaintiff or said child during the pendency of the action, and for such other relief in addition to the costs and disbursements of the action, as the court may deem just.

OFF FOR A VACATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimbrell Have Gone to the Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kimbrell left this morning for the heart of the Blue mountains, where they will spend the next six weeks or two months. Mr. Kimbrell came to the conclusion that the only way to get away from his business was to steal away, so this morning in the early light he loaded a wagon with all of the things necessary for a long trip and drove out of town. He left word for all those who want to see him that if they find him inside of a month they will have to be birds and strong of wing, for he intends to bury himself for that length of time.

EIGHTEEN CARS OF CATTLE.

Also One Carload of Horses Shipped From Pendleton to Seattle.

TWO DAYS' AND A NIGHT'S TRIAL OF A REPLEVIN CASE

The Humble Equine the Cause of a Controversy That is Out of All Proportion to Its Value—Large Number of Witnesses Summoned.

The case of J. G. Meyers vs. Mary English, has been occupying the attention of the justice court for the last two days. It is a suit brought for the replevin of a colt whose pedigree is unknown and whose age is in dispute. Both the plaintiff and the defendant claim the ownership of the filly, and the lady has the halter end of the argument, therefore the plaintiff seeks to recover.

All of the cousins and the neighbors for miles around seem to know something of the different delicate phases of the question, and have been retained as witnesses. Each party claims to have raised the animal and many people have been found to testify as to the presence or the absence of one scar, which is of importance to the outcome of the prosecution. There are also numerous expert witnesses as to the age of the animal, and this seems to be of some moment.

The case was called yesterday at 2 o'clock and ran all during the afternoon. Then they tried a night session, and the case was postponed till 10 this morning, and from that time was put off until 2 in the afternoon, when it was again taken up.

J. T. Hinkle represents the plaintiff, and James A. Fee the defense, and both sides are putting up a skillful and determined fight. In the meantime, the colt is hitched in front of the city hall innocent of its value and importance, for it will be valuable by the time the costs of the case are counted.

PIPE ARRIVED.

Material for the Extension of the Water System is Here and Will Be Used at Once.

The carload of pipe for the water company, which has been awaited for so long, arrived in the yards last night and will be distributed today. In the morning a force of men will be put to work on the ditches that have been opened and waiting for a couple of months, and the people who are crying for water will be satisfied in short order. There will be about 4,500 feet to lay. The pipe is from Pittsburg, and has been on the road over two months.

Gone After Witnesses.

Thomas J. Clark, the postal inspector of this district, came to the city last night from Ukiah and left this morning for Walla Walla, where he goes after witnesses in the case of the government against Ed and Sam Hall, the two brothers charged with fraudulently obtaining a money order at the Walla Walla office a few days ago. He will return this evening, and as soon as the witnesses can reach the city the preliminary hearing of the men will be held.

Gone to San Francisco.

Miss Beth Thompson, of Spokane, started for San Francisco this morning, where she will attend college during the summer term. Miss Thompson has been the guest of Mrs. C. A. Cole, of this city, for some time.

NEW MEXICAN ROAD.

Line to Be Built to Tap 2,500,000 Acres of Timber.

San Francisco, July 15.—Colonel John Weir has just arrived here from Mexico, where he has invested in a 2,500,000-acre tract of timber near the city of Chihuahua for himself and his associates, Vice-President Morton, of the Santa Fe, and Walter S. Eddy, a Saginaw lumberman. In order to make the land available, its owners, according to Colonel Weir, are contemplating the construction of 60 miles of railroad southwest of Terzas, the southern terminus of the Rio Grande, Sierra Madre & Pacific railroad, or about 55 miles northwest from Minaca, on the Chihuahua & Pacific road, the connecting link in the new system of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway. Part of the project is to have a portion of the newly acquired territory colonized by Boers.

Forthcoming Prosecution.
