MANY METHODISTS

TWENTY THOUSAND MET IN DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

Marked Absence of Sectional Feeling —Proposal to Obliterate Distinction Between Church South and Church North — History of the Epworth League.

Detroit, Mich., July 16.—The sixth international convention of the Epworth League is proving to be as big a religious demonstration as the most sanguine had expected. Eight bishops of the church, besides eminent divines without number, are here. A score of special trains have already arrived with delegates from every section of the United States and Canada. Ten thousand visitors are already on the ground and trains bearing 5,000 more are on the way. In addition to these there are special excursions planned from adjoining states and from Canada which will swell the number of visitors to at least 20,000. Detroit is proving herself equal to the emergency. Delegates are being assigned to comfortable quarters as fast as they arrive. The visitors spent the morning in visiting Belle Isle and other nearby resorts, there being special trains and boats for these side excursions. Among the many notable visitors may be mentioned Bishops Malan, Hoss, Joyce, Galloway, Williams and Carmien, President Bashford, of Ohio Wesleyan University, Rev. A. C. Crews, general secretary of the Canadian Epworth League, and Rev. W. F. McDowell, D. D., of New York. A significant feature is the colors adopted, being red, white and gold. Red and white are the colors of the northern and Canadian leagues, and red and gold of the southern league. To give each of these representation the tri-color was adopted.

Conference Departments.

Headquarters have been opened for the various state and conference departments. Rallies of these are arranged in addition to the stated program. The conference formally opened at 2:30 this afternoon, with three monster meetings held simultaneously. Tent Ontario had an audience of 5,000, presided over by former Bishop A. Carman, of Toronto. Mayor Maybury delivered an address of welcome, as did Dr. William H. Shier, representing the Detroit district of the Methodist Episcopal church. A response was delivered by N. W. Rowell, K. C., of Toronto, and this was followed by the keynote address of the convention, the speaker being Rev. David G. Downey, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The second meeting was held in the Detroit Opera House, which was crowded from pit to dome with an enthusiastic and cheering mass of delegates and visitors. Here Governor Bliss welcomed the delegates, seconded by Rev. George Elliott, of the Central M. E. Church. Dr. H. M. Dubose, general secretary of the Southern M. E. church, responded on behalf of the visitors. The third of the simultaneous meetings was held in the commodious Central M. E. church, where a program similar to that of the other two meetings was carried out. Dr. J. H. Potts, D. D., of the Michigan Christian Advocate, welcomed the visitors and Rev. Stephen J. Herben, of New York, responded.

Tonight four monster rallies are to be held, the speakers to include Bishop Mallalen, Bishop Hoss, of the Southern M. E. church, Dr. Henry Spellmeyer, of Newark, N. J., and Rev. E. M. Mills, D. D., of Elmira, N. Y., who successfully carried through the famous 20th century movement of the M. E. churches, raising a vast fund of $20,000,000.

One of the most significant features of the convention is the absence of sectional and denominational feeling and the spirit of unity prevails. Many of the most noted visitors are unhesitatingly in favor of wiping out the lines that separate the Southern and northern divisions of the Methodist Episcopal churches. This will probably not be discussed in the conference, but it is frequently made the topic of conversation in fraternal gatherings of Northern and Southern delegates.

History of the League.

The Epworth League occupies the same place in the Methodist church that the Baptist Young People's Union does in the Baptist church. The league was organized at Cleveland, O., May 12, 1890. Prior to that time there had been a number of young people's societies bearing various names in the thousands of Methodist churches over the country, but each was more or less independent of the others, although all had nearly the same object in view, that object, which now dominates the combined league and formulates its universal and globe-circling motto: "Look up; lift up; all for Christ." The local organizations in the various churches are called chapters. Of these already organized and enrolled the number is more than 20,000. The aggregate membership reaches nearly one million and a half. In its spirit and form the league was found to be consonant with the genius of Methodism and so well adapted to the end for which it was designed that the Methodist church of Canada as well as the Wesleyan Methodists of Great Britain, have adopted it. Branches have also been established in Mexico, Norway, South America, Germany, Sweden, Italy, in China, and Japan and even in the jungles of India.

IOWA BAR ASSOCIATION.

Will Discuss Wide Range of Important Topics.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 16.—What promises to be the most notable meeting in the history of the Iowa State Bar Association was begun today at the Savery with a large attendance of representative lawyers and jurists from all parts of the state. George W. Wakefield, of Sioux City, acting president of the association, called the gathering to order and delivered his annual address. Routine business occupied the remainder of the morning session with the exception of a half hour devoted to the discussion of desirable modifications in the practice as to the writing and reporting opinions of the supreme court. The afternoon session opened with a memorial in honor of the late R. M. Haines, of Grinnell, who was president of the association at the time of his death. Another feature of the session was a discussion of the question, "What Should Be Deemed Indebtedness Within the Meaning of Our Constitution and Statutory Provisions Limiting the Amount Thereof Which Municipalities May Incur?"

Much interest centers in the annual banquet this evening at which the speakers and their toasts will include the following: "Iowa," Governor A. B. Cummins; "The Lawyer's Inalienable Right," William F. Miller, Bedford; "The New Judge," B. H. Miller, Anamosa; "The Press and Lawyers," Lafayette Young, Des Moines; "The President," Walter I. Smith, Council Bluffs.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Charles Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 53 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

No Pity Shown.

"For years fate was after me continuously," writes F. A. Gilledge, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at Tallman & Co.'s drug store."

Stock Farm for Sale.
