The Wheat Trade.

Portland, July 16.—The wheat ket remains very inactive and there ket remains very inactive and there is nothing doing in the way of export. Several vessels are in port loading wheat and flour for foreign account, and some good size parcels have gone to California, since the beginning of this month. On Puget Sound there is a decided duliness manifested, as there are no vessels on spot for loading grain. The wheat trade will have quite a spell of duliness. Crop reports above but little change over our previous advices and it is hardly adprevious advices, and it is hardly advisable at the present time to make a forecast at what the size of the crop will be From the most conservative people in the trade in the interior, we have advices estimating a decrease of fully 20 to 25 per cent of that of one year ago. Club, 77c, blue stem, 80c and valley 78c per bushel.

Flour—This market shows but little change from that of a week ago, of the stem of ters are received daily by cable, from different sections but prices quotes are not satisfactory to most millers and the same is rejected. The demand from Japan has not as yet fallen off, and several good sized cargoes will be dispatched to that country this month, the steamer from Port hand carrying our test because less land carrying over 46,060 barrels las Friday. From China the demand it slow, as stocks are not decreasing stow, as stocks are not decreasing very fast, but the outlook is very fa vorable for some heavy shipments it September. California is receiving its usual weekly shipments, and as new wheat is being marketed there the demand from there will not be very large from now on. The mill will have only enough wheat to carry them through the next season and i it is doubtful whether the orders could be filled. Quotations are with out change and range from $3.85 to $4.35 per bairel.

Millstuffs — Notwithstanding the scarcity of offal of all kinds, prices have not advanced and remain as for-Notwithstanding the merly quoted: bran and shorts $22.50 per ton; middlings $26.50.

Barley-Market very dull and nothing doing as new barley has not yet been harvested. Prices for old remains at $20 per ton for feed.

San Francisco Markets.

San Francisco, July 16.—Markets here are very dull and training in spot wheat is small. Crop reports have been very discouraging during the week with high winds over the cen-tral part of the state and heavy losses by fires has caused another large reduction in the probable small crop of the state; damage reports were also received from the banner wheat district viz. San beauting wheat district, viz. San Joaquin, caused by winds. Quotations for new wheat shipping qualities range from $1.35 to $1.37% per cental; milling, $1.42% to $1.45.

Barley - This market is quite active and the crops are turning out magnifeculty. Good feed qualities sold as high as $1.03 per cental; quotations rance from $1.02½ to $1.05; for ship-ping qualities $1.12½ to $1.15 per cental and are firm at these prices.
