Several Canadian Provinces and Nearly Every State in the Union is Represented-Overflow Meetings in All the Churches of the City.

Detroit, Mich., July 17 .- The see ond day's session of the Epworth League international conference be Epworth gan at an early hour this morning with a with a "sunrise prayer meeting" in the Central M. E. church. There were present nearly 1000 delegates. The exercises were led by Rev. S. B. Towne, D. D., of Greencastie, Ind. Following the exercises an experience meeting was held in which delegates from nearly every state in the union and from several Canadian provinces participated.

It is estimated that there are fully 18,000 longners in the city. In spite of the crowil Detroit was so well pre-pared for the entertainment of the visitors that not near half its entertaining capacity is exhausted. The residents report that they are not crowded in the least.

Four Separate Conferences,

Four separate conferences were held this morning in as many meeting places. When the delegates as-sembled in the Central M. E. church, H. E. V. Porter, of Jamestown, N. Y., presiding the splendid choir led a short service of song, after which the morning topics were taken up in 10minute speeches by the delegates. "The Heart of the Weekly Devotional The Heart of the weeky bevolution Meeting, was the first subject, by the Rev. H. E. Warren, of Lennoxville. Que. Under the head of "Our Obli-gation to the Juniors," Mrs. Anna H. Woodcock, of Aurora, Neb., delivered an interesting address. "Training the Warles or Descent, Work," was an interesting address. "Training the Worker for Personal Work," was the topic assigned Rev A B Higgins of Middleton, Can. Rev J. J. Robin-ette, of Maryville, Tenn. closed the session with an address on "The Presence of the Spirit an Essential."

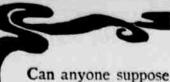

Missionary papers and discussions occupied the time of the delegates as sembled in the Detroit opera house. W. Cooper, of Kenosha, Wis., prestilled over this meeting and the speakers included John W. Penningthe ton, of Colorado Springs, Col., Rev. Seth Ward, D. D. of Nashville, Tenn. and Miss Bessle Brooks, of Beaver, Pa. The juniors held sway in the Central Presbyterian church, where problems of child culture, study the courses, and the enlistment of adult reliers were some of the topics dis-PHERICAL

Literary and Social Work.

The literary and social work of the league were the chief subjects consideration at the fourth of the forchoon conferences, held in the Fort Street Presbyterian church, Rev. M. Workman, of Benton, Ark., preiding. After an offering of prayer by the Rev. M. W. Dogan, of Marshall, Texas, papers treating of so-cial fellowship, reading rooms and the literary activities of the league were presented by Rev. W. P. Eveland of Bloomsburg, Pa., Misa Clara Wal-lace, of Toronto, Rev. C. O. Jones, of Knoxville, Tenn., Rev. W. E. Gross, or Baldwin, Kas, and others.

A wide range of topics relating to eague and denominational work were liseussed at the three large meetprominent ngs of the afternoon. among the speakers being Rev. S. G.
