AT HOT LAKE NEXT YEAR.

Medicos Returned From Meeting of Medical Association.

Drs. C. J. Smith, W. E. Cole, T. M. Henderson and R. E. Ringo returned this morning from Hot Lake, where they went to attend the session of the Eastern Oregon Medical Association. The gentlemen report a very pleasant time and a profitable meeting. A constitution and by-laws were adopted at the meeting yesterday and it was also decided that the association would hold one meeting a year instead of two, as has been the case formerly. The next meeting of the association will be on the first Thursday in July, 1904, and the place of meeting will be held the same as this year, at Hot Lake.

Hot Lake is a centrally located place and the accommodations are good there, and the people like to have the meeting and endeavor to make the time pass pleasantly for the visitors, so the session determined to make it the place of next convention.

Waiters Strike in Cleveland.

Cleveland, July 17.—Only 200 waiters responded to a general strike order which was to take effect this morning. The strikers demand $1 a week increase and shorter hours.

FINGER BROKEN.

Old Story of Hand Being Caught in the Halter.

Theodore Armstrong, a young man who resides three miles out in the country, had his finger broken yesterday afternoon as he was coming to Pendleton. He was driving one horse to a buggy and was leading another behind, when the led horse became frightened at some object along the road and pulled back suddenly. Armstrong's hand became caught in the rope in such a way as to break the index finger of the right hand.

He came to the city and had the hand dressed by Dr. McFaul, and was on the street attending to his business in a short time, not much the worse for the experience.

NINE VAGS.

Three Dismissed, Two Sent to Jail, Balance Told to Hike.

The city court was a busy place this morning once more, the night force of the police department having rounded up nine men without visible means of support or habitation. Out of the lot three were dismissed, and the rest were found guilty and their sentences suspended while they got out of the city. One or two out of the bunch were sent to jail to serve three days for the added luxury of drunkenness.

Judging from the police court dockets the transient population of the country has a great love for the city hotel.

TWELVE CARLOADS OF SHEEP.

Came From Boise and Will Be Transferred Here to the W. & C. R. Ry.

C. S. Scott, the sheep buyer for the Frey-Bruhn Meat Company of Seattle, will ship 12 cars of sheep out this evening over the W. & C. R. for Seattle. These are the sheep that have been such a mystery in stock circles for the last day or so. Yesterday the cars were ordered and no sheep were in sight. The men who were supposed to know of all of the stock movements in the country, knew nothing of the sale and could think of no place in the vicinity where 12 cars of sheep could be bought, for the reason that all of the sheep in the country are on the summer ranges.

This morning the consignment came in over the O. R. & N. from Boise, where they had been bought. They were unloaded and will be transferred to the W. & C. R. line late this evening and sent out about 4 in the morning for their destination.

FELL INTO THE BASEMENT.

Darkness and Absence of a Railing Responsible for the Tumble.

Gus Linderman met with an accident last night which resulted fortunately for him in that it was not fatal. He had been working for the last week at a place in the country, and returned to his home yesterday afternoon. In the evening he came down town and after remaining some time started for his home with a sack containing his tools on his shoulder. Having been out of the city for several days, he was unaware of the changes taking place on Webb street where George Darveau is building his new sample rooms, and in the darkness stumbled over the railing on the sidewalk and fell to the bottom of the basement, a distance of about nine feet. He struck on his head and the sack fell on top of him.

After he had gathered his wits together Mr. Linderman groped his way out of the excavation and went to his home. This morning he is suffering from a badly strained neck and bruised face, but otherwise is none the worse for the fall.

Did a Humane Act.

The city officials are humane and believe in the old adage of kindness to the brutes. This morning a man came into the city and tied his horse to a post. That was the last that was seen of him up to 3 o'clock. If he has been seen since that time no one knows it. His horse stood in the sun all the morning and at noon was given a drink by order of Armstrong, the policeman. At 3 o'clock the man had not put in an appearance and his horse was taken to a livery stable and given food and water. Now when the man wants him he will have to pay the bill and run the chance of prosecution for cruelty to animals.

Gallery Will Be Open.

Leaves for the Sound.

Report From Susanville.

P. S. Moyer, of Susanville, is in the city today on a business trip. He reports the mines of that section to be in fine shape and running steadily with a big output. While here Mr. Moyer bought him a new buggy and a set of harness which he will use to help drive away the cares of business and the fatigues of the day.

Looking for Location.

R. Johnson, who has conducted the Spokane Cafe in La Grande for the past year, is in the city in search of a business opening. He may engage in the general merchandise business if a suitable location can be found. He has disposed of his restaurant business in La Grande.

Birch Creek Farm Sold.

F. E. Brickell and Clara E. Brickell, his wife, have sold to C. L. Hoffmann and D. T. Ham for $1,500, the east half of the southwest quarter, and the west half of the southeast quarter of section 28, in township 1, north of range 32 east, being land in the vicinity of Birch creek.

Mrs. Ben Hopper returned this morning from La Grande, where she has been for some time visiting her son, J. Hopper. Mrs. Hopper, who is over 80 years old, is the guest of friends here today preparatory to going to her home at Yakum, 12 miles out of town.

Sixty-Five Thousand Still Out.

Philadelphia, July 17.—The first break in the textile strike took place this morning when 750 operatives returned to work. The strike leaders claim this is insignificant, as 65,000 are still out.

Will Visit in Seattle.

Mrs. L. G. Frasier, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. P. P. Corby, who is her guest from the East, will leave this evening over the W. & C. R. for Seattle, where they will visit with relatives and friends for a few weeks.

HOLD-UP ON A TRAIN

THREE BOX CAR TOURISTS LOSE THEIR LITTLE ALL.

Victims Are Harvest Hands Who Were Coming to Pendleton to Work—No Clue to the Perpetrators—Arrived in Town This Morning.

Peter Hostetler is in the city this morning minus his watch, his money, his gun, his knife and pocketbook as the result of a chance meeting with three bad men on a train this side of Baker City last night.

Hostetler and two companions started for Pendleton from the south end part of the state a few days ago, intending to work in the harvest fields in the vicinity of this place. It is the habit of Hostetler to work for a machine man near this city every harvest and he had started north to take his usual summer job.

The men were in a box car about 30 miles this side of Baker City this morning attempting to get some sleep, when three masked men climbed inside and told them to throw up their hands. The sleepy men complied with the request and were relieved of all the valuables they had. Hostetler lost a gold watch, $20 in cash, a gun and two pocketbooks. One of his companions lost a watch and about $5, and the other lost about $4. The men, after getting the money, dropped off in the darkness.
