CROP NOTES

CROP IN MOST PARTS OF THE COUNTY.

Undetermined and Unlarge Yields This Year Isolated and Exceptional Little More Raised Than Supply the Local Deis on and the barley to come into the ware-houses, but as yet there is no price made for this season. The market reports, and are storing on the future according to the reports of the grain dealers. The price will scale from 70 to 80 cents, but it is not fixed, and it is what the exact figure will be at 70 cents it will be the same as last year, for the figures from 65 to 70 cents, make a good margin, even at low ebb of the yield. This year will be light in the county, ranging from 10 to 15 bushels in most of the low-lying in some of the bar-geons. It may run near to the patch of eight acres reported to have raised and this is mentioned as a record for the year though in the fields the harvest re- sults close to 65 and 70 bushels will be in a few places, and will be the exception and not the rule.

The local brewery will use on an average about 2,500 sacks of malt barley, and there are other breweries in the county that will use nearly as much, but the whole crop of this year will not much more than supply the local demand. But as a matter of fact, the county does not much more than raise enough of the grain to supply the home demand, for in the best years there is never more than 40,000 or 45,000 bushels shipped out of the county for foreign consumption. Outside of the brewing barley used all the rest is used for feed, and there is not much more than to last through the year.

The barley crop is a new thing, comparatively in this county, or at least it is only in late years that it has assumed a place among the im- portant products of the county. It has been grown in small patches for many years, but the culture is grow- ing, and more is raised today than ever before, and in the years to come more still will be sown on the lands where the wheat yield is light, for much of the land that will not yield heavily in wheat will go from 50 to 60 bushels to the acre in barley.

First Grain Report.

I. A. Christopher, one of the pro- gressive farmers of Adams, was in the city Saturday afternoon transac- ting business in connection with the harvesting of his crop. This year Mr. Christopher sowed eight acres of ground with eight sacks of barley, and the other day he harvested 325 sacks of good grain from the field. There has been about 1,000 bushels of bar- ley threshed in the vicinity of Adams so far this year, and it has averaged from 65 to 70 bushels to the acre.

Band of Rams All Saved.

The big band of blooded merino rams that were taken to the Montana range by Charles Cunningham in the early part of the summer, were all saved by the herders and safely weathered the heavy storm about a month ago that swept over the Mon- tana country and did so much damage to the stock of that section. It is the intention of the owner to sell the stock from the range to those who are seeking the best blood that can be found for the improvement of their flocks. As there are about 2,000 head of rams and as they are all full- blooded merinos, a small fortune is represented in the flock.

The Chicago Mandolin Club will en- tertain you this evening at Therkel- sen's Piano House. Be sure to at- tend.

Arm Cut With Glass.

Frank Fugit, one of the East Ore- gon carrier boys, was quite severely cut on the arm, while reaching through a broken window pane, Sun- day. A gash one and a half inches in length was made just above the right elbow, and while it is very painful, it is not necessarily dangerous.

Furnish Warehouse Empty.

The Furnish warehouse handled about a million and a half pounds of wool this season. Of that amount 1,250,000 pounds have been baled for shipment, and the other 250,000 pounds have been used by the Pen- dleton mills. The footings were made this afternoon and at this time all of the wool in the warehouse has been disposed of and the place made ready for the grain crop that will begin to come into the town in the next week or so. Most of the wool that was sold was sent to the Eastern mills.

Dr. Kirby's New Office.

Dr. E. G. Kirby has moved his office into room 15, of the Juod building, one of the rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Judd. He has fitted up ele- gant quarters and would be pleased to have his friends remember the change.

You are invited to attend the con- cert at Therkelsen's Piano House ton- ight.

MANGE NEAR MILTON.

Band of Diseased Horses Running at Large in the Lanes.

Hudson Bay Farm, July 13, 1903. —(To the Editor)—In your daily of July 13 I notice an article saying the mange is a thing of the past, as that disease has been stamped out in this county except on the reservation. Knowing the above statement to be a mistake, I take this opportunity of setting you right. Along the coun- ty road in the lanes between this place and Milton, Or., there is and has been since early spring, a num- ber of scabby or many horses being in what I consider its worst stages. They feed along in the lanes and rub themselves on pasture fences, where sound horses are kept on the inside, and in time are likely to cause great damage. They should be look- ed after.

Respectfully,
W. S. GOODMAN.

Don't miss the concert at Therkel- sen's Piano House tonight, by the Chicago Mandolin Club.

A Mistake

In shipping our order recently from a large Eastern toilet paper fac- tory, an error was made and a much higher grade paper was sent—a fine tissue worth 12½¢ a roll. Rather than recall the shipment the factory turn- ed over the entire shipment to us at the price of a cheaper grade.

Nothing like it has ever been sold in this city.
