WILL ATTEND WHITMAN.

Dean of the College Has Been Convassing in This Vicinity.

Frank E. Whitman, the financial agent of Whitman College, returned to his home this morning, after a visit of several days in this city in the interests of his college. While here Mr. Whitman made arrangements with several of the young people of the city to attend the college during the coming year. In all about a dozen of the prospective students have signified their desire to attend the college, and five have made up their minds definitely to be there when the classes are called in September. These are the Misses Myrtle Hawkins, Mabel McMill, Eva Beltz, Grace Crockett and Orville Edwards. The rest will attend if the circumstances of the future will permit.

Mr. Whitman is enthusiastic in the praise of his college, and classes it as the best of the educational institutions north of the California line. He says that in the East it is called the Yale of the Northwest, and that it is really the highest in requirements of all of the small colleges of this territory. It has a quarter of a million of dollars endowment and no debt, and one of the best men is at its head to be found in the educational field.

PLENTY WATER.

City Reservoir Was Running Over This Morning and the Well Was Full.

For some time there has been a scarcity in the water supply of the city, and the nervous inclined have become alarmed to a greater or less extent over the danger from fire; but the danger is now a thing of the past, as the reservoir was running over this morning, and there was a well full of water from which to draw. The water to be used on the streets has been limited to some extent, and there is no danger that there will not be a sufficient supply of water to use in case of fire.

ENGINEER KRANER DEAD.

Well Known Employee of O. R. & N. Succumbs to Appendicitis.

Al Kraner, a well-known and highly respected engineer of the mountain division of the O. R. & N. at La Grande, died yesterday at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, as the result of an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Kraner was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday, while out on the run, between La Grande and Huntington, and was taken to the hospital Wednesday night, in a serious condition. It was thought for a couple of days that an operation would not be necessary, but the case became so severe that he submitted to an operation Friday at 10 o'clock in the morning. He recovered from the effects of the anaesthetic and was apparently making good progress toward recovery, when he was taken suddenly worse, Saturday night and died at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

He leaves a wife and one little daughter. He was about 35 years old, a competent and reliable man and was the next in line of promotion to the position of passenger engineer. He lived in this city for a short time about 12 years ago, where he held the position of engine hostler on the O. R. & N., and has many friends in this city.

The remains will be taken to La Grande on No. 2 tonight, where the funeral will take place tomorrow under the auspices of the Locomotive Engineers.

Fat Cattle to Seattle.

J. C. Lonerzan will ship out another car of fat cattle for the Fry-Brunn Company of Seattle, this afternoon, over the W. & C. R. The cattle are the pick of several hands belonging to James and Frank Roach, W. Smith and J. Jones, who live in the vicinity of the city. In the near future Mr. Lonerzan will have another large shipment from the southern part of the county.

Building Delayed.

T. M. Lowe, who has been at work on the Kerr-Gifford warehouse at Cayuse, returned home Saturday, and will remain in the city. Work on the building has been greatly delayed by the failure of building material to arrive on time from Perry. The warehouse is now ready for the flooring and will be completed in about 10 days, if lumber can be procured on time.

Big Hog Contract.

A. J. Swaggert, of Athena, is in the city today, having come down with a load of fat hogs for the Perry House Meat Company. Mr. Swaggert has sold a large lot of hogs to the company and by the terms of the contract is to deliver a load of 20 head at the slaughter house in this city every Monday morning until the contract is filled.

Hallstorm on Meacham Creek.

E. J. Wilbur, of Meacham creek, is in the city today. He reports a severe hallstorm at North Fork and Wilbur station, 30 miles east of this city last night about 8 o'clock. Some of the hail stones were as large as marbles and while no particular damage was done, this fact was due to the very brief duration of the storm.

TEN DEFENDANTS

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

CASES HAVE THE FLOOR.

Fight Between M. Curry and W. E. Rose Was the Most Serious and is Being Fought—Other Events Were Trifling and Little Damage Was Done.

Yesterday something must have got into the whiskey and the atmosphere, for it was a day of fights and of bloodshed. Today 10 men were up before the police court charged with violating the ordinance against fighting. There are so many of them that it is impossible to get the details of the different fracas, and they are of no consequence, anyway, for there was not much damage in any of them. Thomas Hicks, John Doe, Thomas Scott, Leonard LeRove, Roy Rounds, James Summers, James Enright, A. M. McLean, Murray Curry and W. E. Rose are the defendants in the different affairs, and they are all of them up before the court as the paper goes to press.

The wickedest one of the lot was the fight between M. Curry and W. E. Rose. There has been bad blood between the men for some time, and yesterday Rose was in the Columbia saloon when Curry came in. Rose was standing by the swinging door, and as Curry came in he swung the door against Rose, striking him in the face. Although it was an accident it enraged Rose and he struck Curry in the face. They had a short fight in the saloon, but were separated and kept apart for a time, but as soon as Rose went out of the saloon and onto the street Curry followed him and knocked him through the window of one of the shops, a couple of doors north of the saloon.

Rose's face was cut by the glass, and his hand was also cut. Today he looks as though he had gone through a combing, and the case is being fought by both sides as the paper goes to press.
