THE WAY WE DO IT

Impresses most people with the idea that we have the implements and the "know how" when it comes to putting a new tire on a carriage or wagon wheel. Same thing applies to every feature of carriage and wagon repairing—repainting, revarnishing, reupholstering and generally making the vehicle look as good as new. Your orders, please.

Our new hydraulic tire setting machine does away with the old method it thickens the iron instead of burning the wood. We do not split the wood in getting off the tire, and we do it while you wait. Last longer than the old way. Call and look at it work. Hacks, Buggies and Winona Wagons. Anything that runs on wheels at prices that are right.

EDWARD IN DUBLIN

LOYALISTS OF IRISH CAPITAL SPREAD IT ON.

Medieval Ceremonies Characterize the Reception of the King and Queen—Miles of Gorgeous Trappings—Decorations and Music Are of the Times of Heraldry.

Dublin, July 21.—The arrival of their majesties at Kingstown today, and their subsequent state entry into Dublin was made the occasion for brilliant ceremony. Particularly interesting was the ceremony at the city limits, where an ancient gate and castle towers had been reproduced. On the city side of the gate were the lord mayor and council in their scarlet robes, the mace bearers in blue and silver and several hundreds of representative citizens of Dublin, who were provided with seats on stands. Several crack regiments lined the road as a guard of honor, while behind them were cordons of police and militia.

Thousands of spectators eagerly awaited the coming of the king and queen. Always personally popular with the Irish King Edward was to receive a warm welcome on the occasion of this, his first visit to the Emerald Isle since he ascended the throne. Shortly before the arrival of the royal party the pursuivant-at-arms, wearing a gorgeous cape of royal heraldry, galloped up to the lord mayor and asked permission for the entrance of the king and queen. Gravely and in quaintly-worded terms of courtesy the lord mayor granted the request. Back galloped the pursuivant-at-arms, the gate banging behind him, the whole scene being a counterpart of a sixteenth century play.

Then from the rampart of the gate came a fanfare of trumpets. The royal party was in sight. Out upon a scarlet cloth stepped Lord Mayor Harrington and the members of the municipal corporation, the same who had refused to vote the king an address of welcome. Their robes glowed in the sunshine and their wands and maces flashed brilliantly. The gate was swung open and in rode the advance guard of the royal cortege. A squad of life guards preceded the royal carriage and their brilliant uniforms evoked loud applause from the spectators. The first carriages contained the home secretary and other members of the king's party, accompanied by members of the court and attended by mounted equerries. Finally, amid almost perfect silence, save for the echo of cheers and cries of "God save the king," from outside the city limits came the royal couple. During the five minutes when the king was occupied with the ceremonies at the gate there was scarcely a lull in the loud cheering of the crowds. Frequently his majesty nodded. In fact, he scarcely ceased nodding during the entire nine-mile drive through the streets of Dublin to the castle.

DAIRY AND FOOD MEN.

National Association Has Met With an Oregon Man Presiding.

St. Paul, Minn., July 21.—The annual convention of the National Association of State Dairy and Food Commissioners was opened at the state capital today with J. W. Bailey, of Oregon, president of the association, presiding. The attendance was large and representative of the entire country. Prominent among those present were Dairy Commissioners H. B. Wright, of Iowa; C. P. Sherwood, of South Dakota; Mrs. Mary L. Wright, of Colorado; J. H. Thomas, of California; A. H. Jones, of Illinois; J. N. Hurty, of Indiana; J. Q. Emery, of Wisconsin; Horace Ankeny, of Ohio, and B. W. Kilgore, of North Carolina.

Governor Van Sant and Mayor Smith welcomed the visitors, for whom response was made by A. H. Jones, of Illinois. The annual address of President Bailey occupied the remainder of the opening session. After luncheon the delegates reassembled and listened to an interesting paper by Commissioner H. B. Wright, of Iowa, on "The Dairy Industry of the Country," followed by an address on "The National Food Law," delivered by Congressman H. C. Adams, of Wisconsin. This evening Prof. H. W. Wiley, chief of the United States bureau of chemistry, will tell the association of the results of his recent noted experiments on the effects of antiseptics on the human body.
