

BURIAL CEREMONY

HOW A POPE OF ROME IS DISPOSED OF.

Strange Rites of the Catholic Church
—Two Hundred Masses are Said
for His Soul—One Million Dollars
Must Be Paid to St. Peter's Before Final Burial.

When the doctors certify his holiness to have ceased to live in this world the Cardinal Carmelengo robed in violet, and the clerks of the chamber, robed in black, will approach the corpse and, tapping him three times on the forehead with a silver mallet, they will invoke the dead pope by the name which his mother called him in his boyhood: "Gloacchino! Gloacchino! Gloacchino!"

If no sign of life is given after this strange summons the Apostolic Prothonotaries draw up the act of death. From the lifeless finger the chamberlain draws the fisherman's ring of massive gold, worth a hundred golden crowns, and, having broken it up, divides the fragments among the six masters of ceremonies.

The apostolic datary and his secretaries carry all the other seals to the Cardinal Carmelengo, who breaks them also in the presence of the auditor, the treasurer and the apostolic clerks. No other cardinals may assist at this function.

The pontifical nephews and the cardinal patron must quit the palace now. The Carmelengo takes possession in the name of the apostolic chamber, making an inventory of what furniture has survived the spoliation.

Twelve penitentiaries of St. Peter's church with chaplains see the body shaved and enshrouded with new perfumes. The vest in the pontifical habits, crown it with a mitre and place a chalice in the hands.

After four and twenty hours the penitentiaries and the chaplains bear the corpse upon an open bier to St. Peter's church. Canons meet them. The ordinary prayers for one dead are chanted. The dead pope lies in state on a lofty catafalque, where many tapers burn in the chapel of the holy trinity. Through the grille the faithful kiss the feet.

After three days the corpse is lapped in lead. Two and fifty cardinals of the pope's creation will put in gold and silver medals, having the effigy of their dead benefactor on one side and some notable act of his on the other.

The leaden coffin is placed inside a casket covered with cypress wood and walled up in some part of the basilica.

If the holy father shall have chosen his place of sepulchre, either when living or by his will, the translation of his remains must not take place until at least one year shall have elapsed except a vast sum of money be paid the chapter of St. Peter's church. Sometimes the cost is more than a million, especially in the case of a pope who, having departed this life in the odor of sanctity, may one day be canonized.

The expenses of the obsequies will be borne by the apostolic chamber.

On the first and ninth day after death 200 masses of requiem are offered, the first and last being chanted by a cardinal bishop assisted by four mitred cardinals. On the second to the eighth day, inclusive, 100 masses are said daily.

FORTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

Anniversary of the Capture of General John Morgan.

Cincinnati, O., July 23.—Although few recalled the fact it is nevertheless interesting to note that today was the fortieth anniversary of the capture of the daring Confederate leader, General John Morgan, July 23, 1863. There are many yet living in Cincinnati and vicinity who remember the great Morgan raid through Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana in one of the darkest periods of the civil war.

The news of Morgan's coming excited the greatest alarm. Militia companies were hastily formed and equipped, good housewives were busy getting up stores of supplies and rations, old campaign cannons were pressed into service and the city generally put upon the defensive. But the dashing leader's march was cut short, although it was a long time before the general alarm subsided. There has been more or less dispute as to who was entitled to the credit of Morgan's capture, but the investigations of late years appear to confirm the claims of Major George W. Rine, who, with a small company of cavalry, trailed Morgan through Northern Kentucky and finally surrounded him on the Beaver Creek road near the Ohio river.

A Strange Coincidence.

Dublin, July 23.—Of the many persons who attended the brilliant court held today by the king and queen probably not one recalled the interesting fact that it was exactly one hundred years ago, on the evening of July 23, 1803, that Robert Emmett sailed forth with his armed band to attack Dublin castle, in which today's function was held. The insurgents on the way met in Thomas street the carriage of Lord Kilwarren, the lord chief justice of Ireland, who was dragged out of his carriage and received wounds which proved fatal.

Papers by Food Commissioners.

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.—At an interesting session held this morning the state dairy and food commissioners in national convention listened to an address by A. H. Jones, the Illinois food commissioner, on "Uniform Labeling." In the discussion which followed Commissioner Dingman, of Minnesota, Ankeny of Ohio, Emery of Wisconsin and Heimer of Utah, took prominent parts. Another interesting feature of the session was a paper on "Antiseptics and Coloring in Food Products," presented by Professor J. H. Shepard, state chemist of South Dakota.

Washington State Bankers.

Whatcom, Wash., July 23.—The annual convention of the Washington State Bankers' Association in session here is one of the best attended meetings in the history of the association. The three days' program that has been arranged for the meeting calls for a number of papers and addresses by representative bankers and financiers of Washington and other states of the Northwest.

"The Breakers"

Where to Stop at North Beach

The Breakers Hotel is conducted to attract the best patron and is a summer hotel that is unsurpassed on the Pacific Coast north of the famous California beach resorts.

The building has an ocean front of 100 feet, is 76 feet wide, four stories high, or 73 feet from the ground floor to the top of observatory.

It has handsomely furnished rooms, single or en suite, for guests, each room being carpeted.

The house is lighted by electricity with electric lights and electric call bells in every room, and these lights make it one of the most brilliant beacons on the entire coast.

The entire lower floor is thrown open to the public, and is beautifully carpeted, the spacious reception room and large halls always form favorite gathering places for guests. The billiard room is also quite popular for merry gatherings.

An Aeolian and Pianola in the commodious parlor furnish delightful music at all times, and musicals are pleasant features during the entire season.

The Breakers has a regular orchestra which furnishes music for informal dances and balls, and the large dining room, with smooth, hard floor, makes an ideal hall for regular dancing parties.

An abundance of fresh and salt water fish, clams, oysters, and other sea food is always on our menu; our entire supply of milk, butter and cream comes from our own herd of Jersey cows, and poultry and eggs are supplied from the hotel farm adjacent to the grounds.

There are hot and cold, fresh and salt water, bathe in house, with private baths and toilets.

The waves of the ocean at high tide roll within 200 feet of hotel, and the beach in front is superb for sun bathing.

On the grounds are bowling alleys, golf links, tennis courts, croquet sets; on the lakes, just back of the hotel, is a fleet of rowboats, and on Shoalwater Bay, just east of the hotel, gasoline launch for parties of fishermen, picnickers or others who prefer the warm, still-water bathing to the tumbling of the surf.

All trains stop at the railroad station in the hotel grounds, no crowding into hotel omnibuses or walking in sand is necessary since the hotel ground is a perfect velvety lawn, where the guests are practically landed at the hotel door.

The Breakers Hotel is located at Breakers Station, a regular ticket office, where all trains stop. It is one and a half miles from Long Beach Station.

In purchasing tickets see that they read to Breakers, Wash. and have baggage checked through to that point.

Telegraph and telephone connections in the hotel.

THE WAY WE DO IT

Impresses most people with the idea that we have the implements and the "know how" when it comes to putting a new tire on a carriage or wagon wheel. Same thing applies to every feature of carriage and wagon repairing—repainting, revarnishing, reupholstering and generally making the vehicle look as good as new. Your orders, please.

Our new hydraulic tire setting machine does away with the old method of thickening the iron instead of burning the wood. We do not split the wood in setting off the tire, and we do it while you wait. Last longer than the old way. Call and look at it work. Hacks, Buggies and Wagon Wrecks. Anything that runs on wheels at prices that are right.

NEAGLE BROS.
We have the Stover Gasoline Engine.

Babbit Metal, best in the world, in bars. Price, $1 per bar, at the East Oregonian Office.

Pure water, from six wells driven down to rock.

Pure air, which has first passed through an air filter.

Every drop of Schlitz Beer filtered by machinery through masses of white wood pulp. Every bottle sterilized, so that it contains no germs.

Thus we double the necessary cost of our brewing to make purity certain—to make Schlitz Beer healthful.

Will you drink common beer, and pay just as much for it, when Schlitz Beer can be had for the asking.
