LOST HIS PARENTS

MASCOTT OF PHILIPPINE CAMPAIGN IN THE CITY.

Young Boy Ran Away From Home in Kentucky to Go to War—Lost Hearing From Gunshot Wound—Returns to the United States to Find His Parents Gone—is Now Searching for Them.

A boy, apparently about 16 years of age, totally deaf and bearing scars in evidence of his record, arrived in the city this morning, in search of his parents, whom he left in Kentucky at the beginning of the Spanish war. He has prepared the following account of his career, which is borne out by sufficient proofs, to warrant belief. His parents hearing of his death in the Philippines, had moved away from the former home and he has no possible means of tracing them, except to search the country over personally and advertise for them as best he can.

The following statement, written by him, has been published in several Oregon papers:

"I was born in Maysville, Ky., January 20, 1887, remained at home until July 14, 1898, when I ran away and tried to go to war as a mascot; but they would not let him.

"I went to Ottawa, Kan., and remained there until Company K, 20th Kansas Volunteers started for San Francisco, and they let me go that far, then they stowed me in the hull of the ship, and September 2 we started for Manila.

"Our first battle was at Calocan, where I was wounded in the right side, while after water. Our next battle was at Mololas, and again I was wounded in the right arm and went to the hospital. Had just gotten out when we were ordered to scout along the Bag Bag river, where we destroyed two towns and many huts.

"When we advanced on Malabon, the Philippine capital, I was wounded again in the left limb, above the knee and twice in the right limb below the knee, and my right kneecap was broken by a Mauser ball.

"On May 4 we advanced on San Fernando, but the battle was fought the 2d, and we were too late, and I was in several other battles, but I was not again wounded.

"The company was ordered home December 9th, and I remained with the Ninth Infantry, Company C, under Captain Conners, and went with him to China, where I was in only two battles, at Tein Tsai and Pekin.

"In Tein Tsai I was wounded in the left breast and in the left arm, and in Pekin I lost my hearing and speech by a ball entering my chin and coming out behind my left ear. I was also in the massacre of Samar Island, when my company was attacked on September 27, 1901, and I escaped with five bolo cuts to return home to find that my parents, upon hearing I was killed had moved and left no trace behind them. I am now searching for them. Being a mascot, and not on the pay roll, I cannot get a pension.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Paroled From Washington Penitentiary and Again a Candidate.

F. W. Parker was arrested at Milton last night charged with the forgery of a note at Walla Walla. Parker was convicted some time ago of a forgery and was sentenced to the penitentiary at Walla Walla, but through the intercession of friends, was paroled by the governor not over a week ago. Thursday or Friday he forged a check on A. H. Harris, of Walla Walla, for $40, and slipped away to Milton. There he was warned by some one from Walla Walla that he was wanted by the police, and attempted to get away, but was caught before he had left the town. He will be taken to Walla Walla, where he will have his examination.

Visitors From Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Betts, of Helix, came to the city this week to await the arrival of a sister and two aunts from Mattatuck, L. I. Miss Miriam Gildersleeve, Mrs. A. Gildersleeve and Mrs. C. Carleton, who arrived safely Wednesday. They were conducted to the home of Mrs. A. F. May and later, after being shown around the city, left for the home of Mrs. Betts, at Helix.

Informal Dance.

An informal dance was given last Wednesday evening in the tent on Haley's Island, by a number of the young people of the city. The music was furnished by the Chicago Mandolin Club, and a very enjoyable evening was the result.

How to Prevent

The spread of infection and contagious diseases is a matter in which all are interested. In order that our customers may have the most modern method of disinfection, as well as the safest, simplest and most reliable, we have added to our already complete drug stock a fine line of

SOLIDIFIED FORMAL-DE-HYDE and FORMALDEHYDE GENERATORS.

Besides being an ideal sick-room disinfectant, it is unequalled in fleas, insects of all kinds, etc. See them in our window and come in and let us tell you more about it.

TALLMAN & CO.
Leading Druggists

"FRED L. HOWE, JR."

Big Crop of Huckleberries.

Ben Wells, a rancher from the head of Beaver Creek, is in the city for a visit with friends. Mr. Wells is from the huckleberry belt of the county, and has brought with him several five-gallon cans of berries, which he has put in the cold storage plant to await the arrival of his wife, who will reach Pendleton this evening. Mrs. Wells is the champion huckleberry canner of the county, and will can the berries for winter use. The mountains around the head of Beaver are loaded with the berries this year, which are ripening so rapidly that they cannot be saved.

Gone to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Reeder and little daughter left this morning for Portland, where Mr. Reeder goes to attend the meeting of the great council of the Redmen in his capacity as great sachem. The party was accompanied by Mr. Reeder's mother, Mrs. E. K. Reeder and his sister, Mrs. Elmer Crossley, both of Tacoma. The ladies will go to Portland for a short visit before returning to their home at Tacoma.

A. L. Swagart has returned from a trip to Bingham Springs, where he went with his family to install them for the summer.

N. T. Conklin, who has been engaged in the real estate business in this city for some time, has sold out his business and will go to California.

J. M. Church, of La Grande, passed down the O. R. & N. last night, en route to Portland to attend an adjourned meeting of the Lewis and Clark Fair board.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of Portland, was a passenger on last night's train en route home from Boise, where he conducted the funeral of the late Nathan Falk.

A. C. Chandler has returned to his home at McMinnville after a visit at the home of Rev. R. W. King, of this city. Mr. Chandler is the secretary of the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, and was here to attend to some of the interests of the company.

FISHING BY PROXY.

Magnificent Trout Are to Be Had at Bingham Springs.

Judge J. J. Balleray has returned from a visit to Bingham Springs, where he went during the recent hot weather. While gone the judge indulged in the pastime of chasing the sky and fleeting trout, but he did it in a novel and convenient way. He sent his host out with a line, a basket and all of the necessary implements of warfare and when he returned laden with the spoils of the chase the judge levied an attachment on the basket and its contents.

In this way he caught some beautiful averages from one foot to two feet in length, and some of them weighing as much as 10 pounds. However, none of the record-breakers reached this city, thanks to the appetite and the modesty of the legal fisherman.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANK JORDAN.

Was Afflicted With Consumption and Was a Native of This Vicinity.

Word was received in the city this afternoon that Mrs. Frank Jordan died this morning at the family home, nine miles south of Pilot Rock, on Birch creek. Mrs. Jordan has been sick for a long time with consumption and the end was not unexpected to the members of the family.

Mrs. Jordan is one of the pioneers of the county, having lived all of her life in this part of the state.

The funeral will be held at Pilot Rock tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and the burial will be made at the Olney cemetery at 10 a. m. in the afternoon, between 6 and 7 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. Robert Warren, of the Methodist Episcopal church.

COUNCIL OF FREEMEN

FIVE MEN ATTENDING CAMP FROM PENDLETON.

L. B. Reeder Will Retire From Office of Great Sachem and Will Be Chosen Great Prophet—State Council Will Elect Delegates to National Council.

Thomas Fitz Gerald will leave Monday for Oregon City to attend the meeting of the Great Council of the Red Men, which convenes at that place on Tuesday morning and continues over Wednesday.

There are four delegates from this city not counting L. B. Reeder, the great sachem of the state. All of the delegates are now either at Oregon City or near there, Roy Ritter having gone there several days ago; Gus Stangler is with his family at the seaside; James Devlin left this morning, as did Mr. Reeder.

Mr. Reeder will retire from the position of great sachem at this meeting, and according to the custom of the order will be elected to the stump of great prophet of the state. That will be the highest office in the state, and the one which is held by those who have gone through all of the chairs or stumps.

At this time the council will elect a delegate to represent the state in the Great Council of the National Order, which meets at Atlantic City, N. J., some time during the month of September.

The delegation from this city will attempt to secure one of the state offices for this place at the coming meeting, having for some time had a representation in the state council from here.

SCRAPPED THIS AFTERNOON.

Bad Blood, a Fist Fight and a Gun Play Between Ward and McClure.

Ralph Ward and Robert McClure, two well-known men of this city, came to blows this afternoon on the corner of Main and Alta streets by the side of the Tallman drug store, and before they could be pulled apart blood was spilled and a gun was drawn.

It seems that there has been bad blood between the two men for some time, and this afternoon, when they came together, the old feud broke out afresh. The men first started into a fist fight, but McClure started to draw his gun. Ward got hold of McClure's hand, and before the man could get loose to use the weapon the crowd and a couple of policemen had pulled the men apart and disarmed McClure.

Both of the men were taken to the recorder's court and given an immediate trial. Ward pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct and was fined $10, which he paid. McClure had two charges to face, one of disorderly conduct and the other of carrying concealed weapons. He was fined $10 for the first offense and $20 for the last.

McClure paid his fine and was released. The trouble has been brewing for a year, and it is thought to be not yet finished.

FIREMEN'S SOUVENIR.

Excellent Publication Now Ready for Distribution.

The souvenir of the Pendleton volunteer fire companies, edited and arranged by W. A. Gilmore, is now being issued from the press of the East Oregonian.

The souvenir is a handsome booklet of 60 pages, elegantly bound, containing half-tone cuts of all the members of the Pendleton fire companies and other prominent citizens, besides views of Pendleton and attractive advertisements of almost every business institution in the city.

The subject matter of the book was prepared by Mr. Gilmore, assisted by the officers of the volunteer companies, and would be a credit to towns larger and more metropolitan, if possible, than Pendleton. Mr. Gilmore has spared no pains to make his publication attractive and up-to-date, and that he has succeeded, his labors bear splendid evidence.

GRAIN-O

THE PURE GRAIN COFFEE

The coffee habit is quickly overcome by those who let Grain-O take its place. If properly made it tastes like the best of coffee. No grain coffee compares with it in flavor or healthfulness.
