He reports that the lodge in the state is enjoying a splendid growth. A special campaign in the interest of the order in the northern counties will be inaugurated November 1 and at that time Mr. Williams will return to this field to assist in the campaign. There are now 40 lodges of the order in the state and the membership is about 3,000.

NOT GOOD, NOT HERE

They Lead the Procession

The popularity of Swift's products among all classes is very largely due to the absolutely clean and hygienic conditions under which each carcass is dressed, and the meat and the food products prepared and inspected. This is particularly true of Swift's Premium Ham and Bacon. From the sleek, corn-fed hogs in the pens, the carefully selected hams and bacon in the smokehouse, the final expert inspection by the U. S. government, and, lastly, the dainty wrapping in parchment paper, each step in the evolution of these nutritious and appetizing products is a guarantee that they will always please.

GROWING RAPIDLY

DOZEN NEW MEMBERS WERE TAKEN INTO CLERKS' UNION.

This Organization Now Has Thirty-Three Members in This City—More Applications Are Now on File—Below is a Complete Roster of the Membership.

The Clerks' Union that was organized some time ago has passed the experimental stage and is now on a firm footing and is growing rapidly. At the meeting last night a dozen new members were taken in, and at the meeting before that as many more joined. This brings the membership to 33, and as more applications are now in the hands of the committee, it will not be long till practically all of the clerks of the city are on the roll of the union.

The club meets the second and fourth Fridays of each month, and the purpose of the club is partly to promote a better understanding among the clerks of the city, and to acquaint them socially. At the next meeting ice cream and other light refreshments will be served, and a good social evening spent. The membership of the union to date is given below:

Dry Goods—Fred Earl, F. F. Perham, J. H. Wallace, Ethel Newquist, Mamie Sudvan, Lizzie Noble, Norval Jones, Ed Eben, Charles E. Bond, W. C. Behrens, F. E. Livingood, George Ferguson, Eldred Waffle, Charles Honey, Martin Fineran, Frank Macey, Charles Bean, Robert Stott, A. F. Zoellner, W. H. Holley, J. E. Rubidew, Floyd Anderson, J. P. Murphy, Miss Hulda Newquist, Miss Rose Fletcher, Miss Effie Jean Frazier, Carl Cooley and J. W. Wilson. Grocery—W. H. Harrison, W. C. Hoseason, J. W. Dyer, E. P. Hemmelgarn and A. S. Danner.

SOCIABLE EQUINE.

Horse Goes Calling Without Being Invited—is Not Asked to Call Again.

Pendleton has a horse that is not only fashionable by instinct, but sociable by practice, as has been evidenced by his actions of last evening. About half past nine o'clock last night the Misses Sawtelle were much alarmed by unaccountable noises in the front part of their house. They were alone in the house at the time and were, therefore, doubly frightened, for the noises showed that someone was attempting to enter the front door.

Whatever it was the thing came on into the open door and through the hall into the parlor, where it wandered around in an aimless sort of way and at last the ladies both together took courage and went to investigate. When they reached the room an old horse was standing in the middle of the floor, very complacently admiring the pictures and various articles of bric-a-brac placed here and there over the room. The place was evidently much to his liking, for he declined to be escorted out doors and made quite a lengthy visit before he could be induced to leave for his home. He was not asked to call again.

REMODELING DEPOT.

First Operations Begun This Morning—Will Be Pushed Steadily.

Carpenters were put to work on the remodeling of the depot this morning and already the place is taking on a forlorn aspect, as the windows and doors are being torn out and the interior is overhauled. The work was started in the men's waiting room, and from there will progress towards the other end of the building. It will not be many weeks before the city will have a new and commodious station.

RECORDER'S RECORDS.

No Contagious or Infectious Diseases in the City—Eleven Burial Permits.

According to the records in use office of the recorder, the month just passed has been a healthy one. There are no contagious or infectious diseases in the city at this time, nor has there been during the last month. Burial permits have been issued to 11 persons in the last month, but as many people from the surrounding country are buried in the cemetery here the number reported does not show the death rate for the city, for there have been few Pendleton residents die this month.

There is no record in the matter of births as is provided by law, for the reason that the board has not provided the physicians with the blanks called for, and therefore they have not been noting them as they occur.

WHITECHAPEL IN COURT.

Thirty Denizens of the District Pay Fines Today.

Today is the first of the month, and in accordance with the custom the residents of the west side of Cottonwood street, between Webb and Alta, assembled at the office of the city recorder this afternoon for the purpose of paying their monthly fines. Each of the women pay a monthly fine of $7.50 per month, except those who are known as the "landladies," who pay into the treasury the sum of $18. There are three of these in the list, and the total fines enriched the treasury to the amount of $276.50, for there are 30 of the women. Their names and the amount of their fines follow:

Susan Duncan, Helen McAvoy and Hazel Cawthorn, each, $18.00; Grace Mellin, Daisy McCarty, May Wood, Ruth Alden, Maude Woodward, May Alden, Josephine Hall, Hazel Rigby, Mattie May, Mattie Hunter, Alice DeCamp, Luella Robinson, Della Cameron, Thelma Bond, Ethel James, Corinna LeFerne, Helen Belmont, Dolly Vernon, Maude Welch, Grace Brooks, Grace Hill, Lillian Harney, Florence Hines, Mamie Russell, Mildred Jackson, Aggie Ames and Rena Perkins, each, $7.50.

In addition to this list there are five or six who paid their fines on arrival here during the month.

Postal Clerks Reinstated.

Assistant Postmaster Tracy and Chief Mailing Clerk Lowell, in the Baker City postoffice, who were suspended some time ago, have been reinstated. The cause of their suspension was the loss of two registered letters, but as responsibility for the loss could not be traced to either of them, the charges against both were withdrawn.

Farewell Party.

Misses Pearl Harris and Carol Van Orsdall gave a farewell party in honor of Miss Margaret Parker at the home of J. T. Van Orsdall on Ann street Thursday evening. Delicious refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Mabel Johnson, Josephine Cameron, Margaret Parker, Pearl Harris and Carol Van Orsdall; the Messrs. Newton Johnson, Glen Johnson and Orville Edwards.

PROGRESS ON SEWER.

Some Delay on Account of the Labor Market Conditions.

Work on the new sewer is progressing at a rate as rapid as the conditions of the labor market will permit. The men who have been at work have divided, and gangs are now working on the Alta street branch and on Court street as well; but owing to the fact that men cannot be found at this time to take the hard work of the trenches, the construction is not as rapid as it otherwise would be.

As soon as the harvest is over it will be easy to get men, and then more gangs will be put to work and the completion will be rushed to the end.

Off for an Outing.

Mrs. J. J. Muir left on the morning train for Weston, where she will be met by her son, J. W. Muir. From there they will go to the mountains for an outing for several weeks.
