FROM MEADOW CREEK.

A. H. SUNDERMAN DOWN

Water and Grass Plentiful on the Headwaters of the Grand Ronde-Maple Brothers' Cattle in Excellent Condition-No Trouble on Union County Ranges,

A. H. Sunderman came down yesterday evening from his summer sheep camps, on Meadow Creek, a tributary of the Grand Ronde river, which forms a junction with that stream about 80 miles south of Pendieton.

He says the grass is better in that range than usual and the mountain streams are all running full of water. His sheep are in excellent condition and will come out fat for the market this fall Maple Brothers and Mr. Noble, of this city has a large band of cattle in the same vicinity and Mr. Sunderman says these cattle are in prime condition.

Mr. Sunderman owns a large body of deeded land in that district and is somewhat isolated from the densely stocked ranges of the interior. With three miles of good water on his own holdings, and a large body of deeded land as a nucleus, he is not confront ad with the ordinary range problems that cause more or less friction in the districts farther south in Grant county.

Mr. Sunderman is pleased to note that there has been no serious trou ble at any point this year, and aside from one or two reported upon herds of sheep in the interior, the season is passing off quietly.

It is evident that where all parties concerned strictly observe the rules and agreements regarding range distribution there is no trouble and within a very few years more the number of sheep will have been reduced to correspond with the range area, which will permanently settle the range question.
Stockmen are acquiring more and more deed land each year, as a nu-cleus for their summer camps, and it will only be a few years until the range issue will adjust itself, in this
