"CALAMITY JANE"

NOTED WOMAN ONCE LIVED IN SPOKANE.

Most Remarkable Pioneer Woman Character in the West—Dead Shot and Rough as a Pirate.

Spokane pioneers who read of the death of "Calamity Jane" in Deadwood on August 2 are telling of the days in the early '80s when "Calamity" lived in Spokane and dealt faro bank on Main avenue in a wooden building that stood adjacent to what is now the Owl saloon, says the Spokane Press.

"Jane" in those days was the key-stone around which all the excitement and life of the new town was reared. She rolled into town when the Northern Pacific was building through and stayed until the excitement died down, and she became one of the vanguard in the rush to the new Comor d'Alene mining country.

In at the Finish.

"In those days it was customary for the town to be shot up almost nightly, and 'Calamity,' as befitting her name, was always in at the death, as a rule the last person to hold the head and administer consolation to the troubled gambler or erstwhile lud man who was about to depart into the new country," said one of the pioneers today.

"Calamity" quickly became one of the show features of the town and no stranger ever quit our domains without first visiting her place of business.

"In those days 'Jane' wore a man's suit, her nether garments being overalls tucked in the tops of rawhide boots. Her hair was cut man-fashion and she would easily pass for a man, her features being rugged. While dealing her custom was to peacefully chew tobacco and smoke a cigar at the same time. If anyone suggested a drink she was always Johnnie on the spot, drinking neat whiskey with relish and buying a return treat with alacrity.

Was a Dead Shot.

"The reputation of 'Jane' as a peace preserver and sure shot had preceded her to Spokane. Almost without exception there was order in her place, because the 'tellers' were afraid to suggest a rough house. 'Jane' had killed her man, or men, in open duel and nobody evinced a desire to be 'next'.

"With all of her free and easy ways in the matter of annexing new husbands 'Jane' had many good qualities. To people suffering from real misfortune she was always ready to extend a helping hand. Often in obscure cases of sickness 'Jane' was the first and only nurse. Hundreds of old miners throughout the west today remember many kind deeds that were done by this rough, matter-of-fact woman of the pioneer mining camp, and dozens learn of her death with genuine regret."

Her Last Husband.

Since the death of "Calamity Jane" many western papers have contained interesting accounts of her romantic roaming life. Her prowess as a hunter has been retold, her ability as a duelist has been resung, and the Bret Harte stories of her doings have been retold. The Salt Lake Telegram of the 3rd has an interesting interview with her last living husband, "Squint" Squires.

"Squint" is now a one-armed man, the other arm having been shot off by "Jane" in a duel which the two had to decide which of the two should be leader of the family. Squires expresses no surprise that a few minutes prior to her death she expressed the desire to be buried beside "Wild Bill" Hickok, her favorite husband, who was murdered in Deadwood in '76. In his review of her life "Squint" tells of the days when he and she were in Leadville and of their life in Deadwood and other camps. In finishing his narration "Squint" was in tears.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes, of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co.'s drug store. Price 50c and $1 Trial bottles free.

Plumbers Want $5 a Day.

Portland, Aug. 8.—Members of the Master Plumbers' Association are considerably exercised over the expected demand on the part of their employes for $5 a day. Journeyman plumbers are now receiving $4.50 per day of eight hours, and this the employers thing is pretty fair pay.

Ex-Eagles to Gather.

Portland, Aug. 8.—Members of the Portland Aerie, No. 4, Fraternal Order of Eagles which lost its charter, will probably hold a meeting this evening at the old hall to discuss the situation and make an effort to regain the charter. A former member says that after the grand aerie holds its meeting this month a new lodge will be started in Portland.

ECHO NEWS NOTES.

Mr. Gillette Arrives With Carload of Dairy Cows and Household Effects.

Echo, Ore., Aug. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Mel Gillette, who recently purchased the W. H. Babb ranch, came down from Moscow yesterday with their household effects and a carload of dairy cows. Mr. Gillette has been engaged in the dairy business in the Palouse country and knows the profits derived therefrom. He intends to manufacture his output for the present and devote considerable of his time to improving his place and putting in a large amount of alfalfa. He predicts that a cream station will be established here within less than three months.

D. K. Mathews, of Spokane, who has been here some three weeks looking at the country has made a desert "line on a half section of land here. He took this evening's train for Portland, and will see Tacoma and Seattle before going home. He will return here in about two or three months. Mr. Mathews is an extensive realty owner and he predicts a bright future for this country.

J. B. Koontz received a car of brick yesterday which he will use for the foundations and cellars of the new buildings he is erecting.

A WOMAN'S GRATITUDE.

A Mountain Woman Writes in Praise of Newbro's Herpicide.

"For several years I have been troubled with dandruff, causing me much annoyance, and my hair became very thin. I have used Newbro's Herpicide for a month and the dandruff has entirely disappeared and my hair is becoming much heavier than formerly. New hair is growing where there was none and I am very thankful to you for the benefit I have received from Newbro's Herpicide. Very truly yours,

No Shirt, No Team.

While returning from Pendleton late Saturday night, George and Charles Gerking found a team attached to a hack with a pony tied behind, standing in the road. George took the team home with him and cared for them. The next day No Shirt came on track of them and got his team. Another case of bad injury furnished with bay whiskey by bad white man—Athena Press.
