Portland, Aug. 8.—Journeying over Oregon roads in a heavy touring car. Dr. Milbank Johnson, of Los Angeles. Dr. Miloank Johnson, of Los Angeles, president of the Automobile Club of Southern California, arrived in Port-land yesterday. His machine, a heavy Winton touring auto, is the largest ever seen in the city, and its appearance upon the streets caused much streeties.

uch attention. Dr. Johnson has few good things to say of Oregon roads. Working his way through the mountains of Southern Oregon and along the dusty lanes of the Willamette valley, he has ex-perienced much difficulty in reaching Portland. The automobile with the touring outfit weighs 3,000 pounds, and great care was needed to successfully pilot the machine over some of the weak spots in the roads pass-
