A DEMOCRATIC VIEW

HON. SAMUEL WHITE
EXPRESSES AN OPINION.

Says No Democrat Need Be Relegated to the Rear—Thinks the Revision of the Tariff the Leading Issue.

Hon. Samuel White, chairman of the state democratic central committee, says the democrats can win in the next presidential campaign without relegating anybody to the rear.

Speaking of the subject at Baker City recently he gave expression to the following ringing sentiment:

"I believe that the democrats can win the next national election without relegating any democrat to the rear upon a platform which appeals to the commercial interests of the country upon the tariff.

"If the democrats will quit quarreling over past issues and construct a platform on live issues of the day, of which tariff revision is by far the most vital, there can be no question of success in 1904. The people are beginning to understand and feel the burden of a high protective tariff as never before. They see the necessity of reaching out into the markets of the world for trade.

"It is now generally acknowledged by all our commercial interests, that the home market is no longer sufficient to meet the demand for produce consumption, and in order to build up our merchant marine and secure the trade of the world we must tear down the high tariff wall which now surrounds us. An appeal on the part of the democracy to the commercial interests of the nation in the interests of our merchant marine and expansion of trade rather than territorial expansion will surely win.

"The Pacific coast is especially interested in the extension of trade in the Orient and there is not and can be no reason why the Pacific coast should longer adhere to the republican doctrine of high tariff. A platform can be constructed along the line of tariff revision broad enough for all democrats to stand on."

TO SELL THEATER TICKETS.

Contest Will Be Introduced to Let the Public Decide Where Tickets Shall Be Sold This Year.

Work on the inside repairs to Frazier's opera house begun this morning, and will be pushed to completion as fast as possible.

Messrs. Nixon and Taylor have decided to let the public select the place at which theater tickets will be sold during the coming season, and with that end in view will start a coupon contest in the near future, in which all the business houses in the city desiring to handle the tickets are invited to take part.

This method of selecting the place has been decided upon, in order that the public may be satisfied. No charge will be made for the privilege and the object of the new management in this contest is to give the public the best service possible, and locate the day ticket office in the place most suited to the convenience of theatergoers of the city.

One welcome addition which the management will make, at the opening of the season, is to be a new piano, and an orchestra of three or four pieces.

Following is a partial list of attractions already booked for the coming season: "The Christian," "The Burgomaster," "Where is Cobb?" "Royal Italian Band, H. Miller Kent," "East Lynn," "The Dazzler," "James & Ward," "Haverly's Minstrels," "McEwen," "Josh Spruceby," "King Dodo," "Little Outcast," "DeWolf Hopper," "Hermann the Great," "Jeff DeAngles," "The Toreador," "Old Jedd Prudy," "Two Sisters," "Bonnie Briar Bush," Andrew Robson, Fisher & Carroll, Marie Wainwright, "Hello Bill," Robert Mantell, "Way Down East," "Human Hearts," "Florence Roberts, Paul Gilmore, Katherine Kidder, Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "The Bostonians," "Girl From Sweden," Ward and Wade's Minstrels, "Murray & Mack," Russo & Houland, and the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company.

NTW RURAL ROUTE.

Walla Walla Will Have the Fifth Route After September 1.

Walla Walla, Aug. 10.—After being held up for several months, the post-office department at Washington has issued orders for the establishment of Rural Route No. 5. No official notification has been received by Postmaster Brunton, the news being brought to Walla Walla in press dispatches from Washington last night. He did not doubt the authenticity of the report as he and Senator Ankeny have been untiring in their efforts to secure its establishment.

The new route will serve over 100 patrons in the Mill creek and Russell creek neighborhood and will be one of the most important of the five routes in existence in the county. Special Agent Clement of the rural free delivery laid out the route early last February.

It will have a total length of about 24 miles, very near the limit. Starting at Walla Walla, the route will extend to the Seebel school, supplying a large suburban district; across Mill creek at four-mile bridge to the county road; along Mill creek road to Blue creek; retrace to Dudley crossing Mill creek to the Ferroll place, and thence to Walla Walla by the Russell creek road.

NEW POOR FARM BUILDING.

Walla Walla County to Spend $15,000 for Brick House.

The erection of a home on the county poor farm under consideration by the board of commissioners for several months was formally decided upon yesterday afternoon, says the Walla Walla Statesman. Actual work on the structure will not be commenced, however, until the board has carefully considered plans to be submitted at the September meeting. An architect was yesterday empowered to draw up several plans.

The question of cost, a member of the board said this morning, would be carefully considered before any definite action will be taken. The board has in mind the erection of a building to cost not to exceed $15,000, including furnishings and extras. If a building suitable for all purposes can be constructed for less, so much the better. The structure will be of brick and absolutely fireproof.

Building Trades' Council.

Denver, Col., Aug. 10.—The sixth annual convention of the National Building Trades' Council began in Denver today and will remain in session through the week. About 250 delegates are in attendance, representing practically all the national and international building trades, as well as local building trades councils throughout the United States and Canada. Considerable business of importance to the trade awaits attention.

Winona Bible Conference.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 10.—Under the direction of Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, and Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey, the famous evangelist, the ninth annual session of the National Winona Bible Conference began today. During the two weeks' sessions special conferences will be held on home missions, work for men, the business man's relation to the church, rescue mission work, the obligation of the church to the workingman, and kindred subjects.

Going to 'Frisco Encampment.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 10.—Grand Army veterans of Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and neighboring states are rendezvousing in Chicago today preparatory to leaving in a body late tonight for the national encampment to be held at San Francisco. It has been arranged for the special train to make several stop-overs on route at points of interest in Colorado, Utah and California.

Fire at Race Tracks.

New York, Aug. 8.—Incuriares attempted to burn the stables at the Empire tracks at Yonkers early this morning. Thirty valuable horses were rescued with difficulty.

A NEW UNION.

How to Join and Get Quick Results at Small Cost.
Why not join our union of piano purchasers and have a hundred dollars? You can do it and we can help you. This is how it is done: We can well afford to sell ten or more pianos cheaper than one, so have organized a union of ten members. You join and pay $10.00 down and $10.00 a month, the piano is yours. Now here is the best part of it. Every time a new member joins the price of your instrument depreciates in price $10; in other words, when the union is filled every member gets his instrument $10.00 less than regular price, for example, a regular $300.00 instrument can be had for $200.00 by joining the union. Don't delay taking advantage of this great opportunity, as it will only last a few weeks of the dull season. This, combined with our easy payment plan and exchange contract makes it possible for everyone to have an instrument. Therkelsen's Piano Home, 315 E. Court street. Everything musical.
