LIMB FROM LIMB. Well Known Pendleton Man Tells About Physical Torture.

The rack, the garrote and other fiendish torturing machines of the middle ages have gone, but physical torture has not. A prominent Pen-dleton citizen tells how he was tor-tured and how the same tor-before citized tells how he was for-tured and how he escaped. D, W. Cook, 70 years old and re-tired from active business, now liv-ing on Main street, says: "The dull, ing on Main street, says: "The dull, dragging pain in the small of my back felt as if two giants were tear-ing me apart and at times I felt so miserable that I could not stand or walk and was confined to my bed. Urinary weakness set in, especially at night, and I was falling physically every day. At this time I happened to read an ad, about Doan's Kidney Fills and was much impressed with to read an ad. about Doan's Kidney to read an ad. about Doan's Kidney Fills and was much impressed with the sincerity of the issimon'al, which was much similar to the one 1 am making now. I got a box of pills at the Brock & McComas Co, drug store and they helped me so that I contin-ued using them until i had taken sev-eral boxes. Then I could eat, sleep and get around again without suffer-ling the least bit of physical pain. I endorse all of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. portant newspapers and many book and job offices have been unionized. The report of J. M. Bramwood, sec The report of J. M. Branwood, sec-retary-treasurer, showed the union to be in a flourishing condition, both as regards numbers and finances. The membership has increased 4,000 in the last year and it is hoped to make the membership still larger during the coming year in order that sie as gregate may be brought up to the 50, 000 mark. In the last year a total of 159 charters were issued. appor tioned as follows: Typographical unions, 137: photo engravers, 3: mallers, 6: newspaper writers, 12.

and type founders, 1. The second annual convention of electrotypers' Union was called to order here today. Several score of delegates from all parts of the tree of delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada were present. Until last year the stereotypers and electrotypers formed a division the International Typographical Un-lion, but at the Cincinnali convention they organized independently though a close connection is main-tained with the parent body.

This afternoon the delegates and visitors to the two conventions are visitors to the two conventions are being entertained at an outing at River View by the local unions. The business seasions will be resumed to morrow and will probably continue a week or 10 days as a considerable quantity of routine business is 10 come up for consideration and dis-posal.
