NOTES ON A FEW OF THE OLD MEN OF PENDLETON.

"Grandpa" Blair Tells Why His Son Is a Republican—Unusual Record of This City for Old People—Below is Only a Partial Enumeration of the Aged.

Pendleton is a place of good sanitary conditions and of pure air, and in the city the people live to ages astonishing to other localities where the chief thought of the inhabitants waking and sleeping is how to exist.

The other day Dr. Smith was called to attend J. E. Scales for some little temporary ailment, and in talking with the old man found that the block upon which the old man lives, is the home of several people who have lived the allotted three score and ten and are still hale and hearty. Mr. Scales is 76 years of age, while his wife is young at 74.

Mrs. Bishop, their next door neighbor, is 85 years old and still enjoying the life that has been spared for so long, while right back of the Scales' house lives "Grandpa" Blair, who holds the record with 95 years to his credit. Mr. Blair is still hale and hearty and gets as much enjoyment out of life as he did in the years gone by, when he was a boy. He is an ardent democrat and in the days that are past was one of the democratic war horses of the county and the state, being at one time a member of the legislature. All his life long he has supported the democratic party and has served it well, but he has a son now past 70 years, who is as strong in the ideas of the republicans as his father is on the other side.

Not long ago some one was asking the elder man how it happened that he was so staunch a democrat, while his son stood so firmly to the principles of the other party. The old man looked sorrowful for a minute and shook his head. "Well," he said at last, "you know I tried to teach that boy better; but you never could tell him anything, and I could do nothing with him; but he is young yet and when he grows older he will see that he is making a mistake and change over. These young men will have their fling." Grandpa is perhaps the oldest man in the county and among the oldest in the state.

WILL OPEN THURSDAY.

New Gents' Furnishing House Nearly Ready for Business.

Charles Bond and W. J. Sullivan are busy today fitting up their new store in the room formerly occupied by the Krassig barber shop. The shelving will be in place in a day or so, and the proprietors will begin to put in their stock. They expect to open by the 20th of the month.

While the room is small in which the new store is being started, the stock will be as complete as any in the city, and in some particulars will be more so. They will sell everything from socks and overalls for farmers, to the highest grade of shirts to be found in the wholesale houses, and all of the goods will be laid down at a figure that is reasonable and will please the public.

Mr. Bond has a line of silk shirts and neckties that has never been seen in the city. In fact, the whole stock is one that the larger stores may well envy, and one that will bring to the new place all of those who want the best for the least money. The stock will be in position and the store open on the 20th, and from that time on the public will be able to judge for themselves the completeness and the desirability of the goods there sold.

Attention Knights.

A regular meeting of Damon lodge, K. of P., will be held in Castle hall, Monday, August 17. All are especially requested to be present.

Paper at Echo.

A. A. Esteb will begin the publication of the Weekly Echo, at Echo, on September 11. The plant has been ordered from Tacoma and is expected to arrive every day. It will be a four-page folio to be issued every Friday.

Visiting at C. P. Strain's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bechtel, of Kurwin, Kan., are visiting at the home of Assessor C. P. Strain in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Bechtel are Mrs. Strain's parents and will remain in the West until October.

For Rent.

I have remodeled the upstairs of the Despain block and have some of the nicest once rooms in the city. Call and see them.

Cannery Will Start.

The painters are just finishing up on the Echo cannery building, and the whistle will blow for a trial run, about September 10. The people of Echo are preparing to supply the necessary number of American hares, and the cannery promises to start out with a good trade. Orders have been received for sample shipments from every portion of the country. The cannery people have operated a meat wagon in the Echo district for the past three months, and have made a great success of the venture. The cannery will start out without a dollar of indebtedness, having paid for all its material, labor and other expenses with stock and the income from the meat wagon.

Seven deaths have resulted from the shooting into a crowd by "Crazy" Twigg, at Winfield, Kan.

HISTORICAL QUARTERLY.

Oregon Pioneer Association Issues July Number of Its Publication.

The Quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society for June, 1903, has been received. As usual every article it contains is of vital interest to every student of Oregon history, as the following table of contents indicates:

"Oregon and Its Share in the Civil War," by Robert T. Platt; "The Great West and the Two Easts," by Henry E. Reed; "Social and Economic History of Astoria," by Alfred A. Cleveland; "A Pioneer Captain of Industry in Oregon," by Prof. James R. Robertson. In addition a number of documents relating to Dr. Marcus Whitman, the emigration of 1842-3, and the earlier conditions of the Oregon country. Copies of the quarterly may be secured by applying at the Society rooms, City Hall, Portland, Oregon.

Lewiston Fruit Crop.

The Lewiston Tribune says the fruit crop of the Snake River district will be much larger this year than ever before and will aggregate 215 carloads. More specifically, it is estimated that the shipments will be 24,000 boxes of cherries, 9,000 crates of apricots, 25,000 crates of plums, 19,000 crates of prunes, 12,000 boxes of pears, 7,000 boxes of apples, 7,000 boxes of grapes and 165,000 boxes of peaches. The largest orchardist is William Lafollette, of Wawawai, who will ship about 75 cars of fruit of his own growing.
