The Illinois delegation kept open house and inaugurated a lively campaign in the Interest of General John C. Black, the leading candidate for commander-in-chief. The Connec-ticut department and other visitors from the East were equally active in the interest of the candidacy of former Governor Bulkley. Another of the prominent visitors who came in for a large share of public attention was General Miles. Talk of the late commanding general of the United States army for head of the G. A. R. will not down and it appears probable that he will be indorsed for the high honor for next year, even if he is not chosen by a stampede at the present gathering. General Miles is not an nctive candidate for the office, but in the event of a deadlock between Black and Bulkley supporters it is almost certain that the nonor would fall to General Miles.

OHIO NATIONAL GUARD.

Over Six Thousand Men Camped at Annual Meeting.

Newark, O., Aug. 17.-Two thour and tents, sheltering 500 officers and , 6,000 men is the extent of the division camp of the Obio National Guard, which opened today on the state camp grounds near this city. The encamp-ment is noteworthy, not alone because the entire division is in camp for the hist time since the Spanish-American war, but also for the reason that if is the first assembling of the guar it became a part of the organized aux-iliary to the regular amy.

The camp is in command of Major General Charles Dick, the author of the Dick law which brought about the reorganization of the national guard of the entire country. The drills and maneuvers, which form the most important part of the cight stays program, will be conducted on a large treat continuous in the came grounds. tract contiguous to the camp grounds.
The camp itself is one of the finest ever seen in the state. It is lighted by electricity and equipped with a fine telephone field service, under control of the signal corps.
