Mr. F. B. Gray, of Portland, Ore., writes of July 10, 1902, and verifies his statement of February 11, 1903; read them both; this is very convincing evidence that Trib is the one true cure for the liquor and tobacco habits. July 10, 1902, Mr. Gray writes: "I believe your treatment, Trib, a good one. I took the Keeley cure at a cost of $150. I think Trib is honestly the best treatment of the two. It has, I believe, cured me." February 11, 1903, Mr. Gray writes again: "Since I took Trib last June, I never felt in better health in my life. It has made another man of me. I have recommended it to many people and have heard of no one taking it that it has not cured." Price per treatment $12.50. For sale by all druggists.
