COMMERCE - TRADE

EXPORTS OF FLOUR AND WHEAT ALMOST CEASED.

Market for Wheat and Barley Both Steady—A Drop in Wheat is Predicted by Authorities in the General Markets—The Green Groceries Market and Local Market Generally is at a Standstill.

For the first time in the history of things, there is no change in the whole list of the markets for the week. Perhaps the grocers have the idea that they have things about as they wish them to be. At any rate, they note no changes in their stock, and nothing new has come in and nothing gone out of the market. It is quiet, and standing for a time until the fall time of change sets in, and until then the housewife will have to pay what is noted below for what she buys for her household use.

wheat of this crop will be used for export, the balance for flour. California will, no doubt, call on us for wheat, as their crop will hardly come up to 16,000,000 bushels. It looks as if the days for wheat raising in that state are over, farmers paying more attention to barley and fruit.

Flour—Market is firm and the demand is beginning to subside. It looks as if the buyers in the Orient have taken time by the forelock and secured plenty of flour to last them the balance of the year. There is no demand from any other section of the world. California shipments from Portland are fair, but Puget Sound is shipping down quite extensively good lots of flour. Quotations locally are from $4 to $4.30 per barrel.

Millstuffs—The demand continues quiet for bran; shorts is firm with a fair demand. California being a good buyer for all our surplus, and a great many country mills cannot fill orders, are calling on jobbers here to help them out. Quotations for bran is $22.50 per ton; shorts $23 and middlings, $25.50 per ton. Millers do not look for any change of prices, and many think that the price will go up before a drop is recorded.

Barley—This market is very strong, according to sellers' ideas, but buyers cannot see it, prices are too high to transact any business, and whenever sellers come down in their views, trading will become active. Buyers are in the market for feed at $20 per ton, and brewers are willing to trade at the basis of $21. The feeling locally is better, but not enough to cause a rise of $2 per ton to meet the ideas of growers, as prices that have been paid are way out of range for the transaction of business.

San Francisco Markets.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—Market for wheat is very firm and without change, shippers are buying very sparingly, as prices are too high; millers purchase freely at list prices; farmers are not free sellers. It is very doubtful whether very much wheat will be exported this season. The crop is hardly large enough to meet the milling demand. Shipping grades command $1.45 to $1.47½; milling, $1.52½ to $1.60 per cental.

Barley—A fair demand exists for feed qualities and $1.10 to $1.14½ has been paid. It is difficult to secure choice lots of feed. Receipts are quite heavy, and Port Costa warehouses are filling up. Quotations run from $1.08 to $1.12½ feed; brewing, $1.12½ to $1.17½ per cental.

Wool Markets.

Boston, Aug. 27.—The volume of actual trade in the wool market here this week was only moderate. Prices however, were firmly held, and there is no weakness in any direction. Quotations: Territory, Idaho, fine, 14½ to 15¢; fine medium, 16½ to 17½¢; medium, 18 to 19¢; Wyoming, fine, 14 to 15¢; fine medium, 16½ to 17½¢; fine, 18½ to 19¢; Utah, and Nevada fine, 15 to 16¢; fine medium, 17 to 17½¢; medium, 19 to 20¢; Montana, fine choice, 21 to 22¢; fine medium choice, 19 to 20¢; staple, 20 to 21¢; medium, 20 to 21¢; Colorado and New Mexico, etc., fine, 11 to 12¢; fine medium, 14 to 15¢; medium, 15 to 16¢.

THE COMFORTERS.

Peace Workers in War Service Are Gathered Today.

Mountain Lake Park, Md., Aug. 27.—Gray-haired men and women, the names of whom are now unfamiliar with the public, but whose work of peace during the war times of 40 odd years ago gave them a place on the scroll of fame are gathered at this resort to a total of several score. They are the survivors of the sanitary commission, the army chaplains, North and South, Red Cross and other benevolent organizations that became prominent during the civil war.

The occasion of the present gathering is the thirteenth reunion of their joint organization known as "The Good Samaritans" of the United States Christian Commission. The president of the association is Bishop Fellows of Chicago, who holds the title of brevet brigadier general conferred by Abraham Lincoln. Bishop McCabe of Evanston, Ill., is another prominent participant in the reunion. Today's proceedings were confined to welcoming the members and to an informal campfire meeting at which stories of war times were told again and reminiscences of the stirring days exchanged. The reunion will continue through Sunday.

IOWA POPULISTS.

Expected to Keep in the Middle of the Road This Fall.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 27.—The people's party state convention assembled today in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium and was called to order by State Chairman J. R. Norman of Albia. Though the party is numerically weak in Iowa at the present time the leaders have hopes of infusing new vigor into their movement by going it alone and keeping clear of entangling alliances with other parties. A full state ticket is to be named for the offices to be filled at the next election. The names of General James B. Weaver, former Congressman, Wait Butler, and Judge S. R. Davis are heard in connection with the gubernatorial nomination.

Lincoln's famous private car will be exhibited in the Transportation building at the St. Louis World's Fair.
