

THE PINKHAM CURES

ATTRACTING GREAT ATTENTION AMONG THINKING WOMEN.

Mrs. Frances Stafford, of 243 E. 114th St., N.Y. City, adds her testimony to the hundreds of thousands on Mrs. Pinkham's files.

When Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies were first introduced skeptics all over the country frowned upon their curative claims, but as year after year has rolled by and the little group of women who had been cured by the new discovery has since grown into a vast army of hundreds of thousands, doubts and skepticisms have been swept away as by a mighty flood, until to-day the great good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her other medicines are doing among the women of America is attracting the attention of many of our leading scientists, physicians and thinking people.

Merit alone could win such fame; wise, therefore, is the woman who for a cure relies upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

RETURN ELKS' FARES

NORTHERN PACIFIC REFUNDS PRICE OF EXCURSION TRAIN.

Portland Elks Were to Pay $1,000 for the Wrecked Train—Owing to Accident, All Funds are Returned to the Lodge.

Portland, Aug. 29.—The Northern Pacific has returned to the Elks the $1,000 check paid by that order for the special excursion train which was wrecked near Chehalis last week. That the railroad company intended to take this action has been understood in railroad circles during the week and yesterday the report that the money had actually been refunded was confirmed. The check has been sent back to the officers of the lodge with the request that those passengers who accompanied the train may have their fares returned to them. The railroad company, having sold comparatively few tickets and having no list of excursionists, could not undertake the work of refunding the price of the tickets to individuals.

Under the terms of the excursion the Elks were to pay $1,000 to the railroad company for the special train. It was understood tickets were to be sold for $3, of which $2.50 was expected to cover the expense of the railroad fare and 50 cents was to go to the lodge for incidental expenses.

This agreement would have necessitated the presence of 400 excursionists in order that the excursion should defray expenses. It is not believed that so many were on the special train when it left Portland.

The lodge will be confronted with considerable difficulty if it attempts to refund to all persons the amount spent for tickets. If the experience of the railroad company is any criterion, claimants are apt to develop who were in Portland on the day of the accident, and whose only knowledge of the excursion has been gained by hearsay. It is expected, however, that if the lodge undertakes the refunding of the money paid for tickets proof will have to be furnished by the claimants.

Northern Pacific claim agents are visiting all persons known to have accompanied the excursion train and those who insist they were passengers, investigating claims for damages and affecting settlement wherever possible. Numerous instances have developed where claims for injuries have been filed with the company by persons who were not aboard the train, and others who escaped uninjured have insisted upon compensation. Some apparently able-bodied and uninjured claimants have demanded settlement on the basis of temporary or permanent total disability.

TRIB.

Mr. F. B. Gray, of Portland, Ore., writes of July 10, 1902, and verifies his states of February 11, 1903; read them both; this is very convincing evidence that Trib is the one true cure for the liquor and tobacco habits. July 10, 1902, Mr. Gray writes: "I believe your treatment, Trib, a good one. I took the Keeley cure at a cost of $150. I think Trib is honestly the best treatment of the two. It has, I believe, cured me." February 11, 1903, Mr. Gray writes again: "Since I took Trib last June I never felt in better health in my life. It has made another man of me. I have recommended it to many people and have heard of no one taking it that it has not cured." Price per treatment, $12.50. For sale by all druggists.

SPECIAL PENSION AGENTS DETAILED TO PORTLAND.

Intention of the Department is to Dispose of the 900 Claims Now on File Inside of Three Months.

Portland, Aug. 28.—Five special pension agents are now at work in Portland, as the government desires to close up the Indian war pension business before the applicants are all dead. O. L. Sues, of San Francisco, and J. H. Anthony, of Los Angeles, are the latest additions to the force of special agents.

Many Indian war pensions have been approved within the past few weeks, and the agents think the whole batch of 900 and over will be disposed of within the next three months. The policy of the pension bureau toward the Indian war veterans of the Northwest is the most liberal of any pursued thus far. The great ages of the applicants, now averaging 75 years, and the remote period of the Indian wars, 1855-56, impels the department to hasten in the matter, and contemporaneous testimony is seldom sought. If the applicant for an Indian war pension can secure the affidavit of a reliable person who has known him as an Indian war veteran for the past 20 years, the papers are approved without further parley. The idea of securing testimony from comrades, most of whom are dead, is now considered out of the question, so the aged applicants, many of whom are in needy circumstances, will now be allowed their little old $8 per month as a reward for services rendered the United States government half a century ago.

ERIE ROAD FINANCES.

During the year $808,459 were expended for improvements. This was an increase of $568,950.
