RAMBOUILLET RAMS.

Cunningham Has Sold Forty Head to The Dalles.

Charles Cunningham has sold to John Oglesby, of The Dalles, 40 head of his famous Rambouillet rams from his Pilot Rock farm. The rams are all of them young, and brought $15 a head. Mr. Cunningham has made several sales this season and is well pleased with the success he has had with his blooded sheep so far.

The sheepmen of the country are fast coming to the view that the higher the grade the better the success, and they are looking to the best place they can find where they will be able to get stock that they will be sure is good. It will not be long until the mongrel bred sheep will be a thing of the past and all of the ranges of Umatilla county will be covered with high-grade stock.

Will Visit at Wilbur.

Mrs. M. J. Holman and Mrs. Smith, of Adams, left this morning for Wilbur, where they will visit with their father, B. J. Grubbe, of that city. Mrs. Holman is the mother of Mrs. D. J. McPaul, of this city, and is long past the meridian of life, and Mrs. Smith was a girl with her at the time in the past. They are now going to visit with their father, who is one of the oldest men in the county, and perhaps in the state. While in this city the ladies were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. McPaul.

Toilet Daintiness

Who is it that does not appreciate a sweet, delicate odor, especially of the dainty, lasting kind? We have the largest line of imported and domestic perfumes in Eastern Oregon. A few of our leading imported odors are: Azurea, La Trefle, Peau d'Espagne, Violette de Parme, Indian Hay. And many more of the same quality in bulk as well as in fancy packages.

COUNCIL MEETING

THE REGULAR MONTHLY BILLS WERE ALLOWED.

Hose Company No. 4 Wants More Hose—Fire Chief Withee Will Be Delegate to Olympia — Two Miles of Sewer Has Been Laid and All the Piping Has Arrived.

Last night was bill night at the council meeting, and that was all that forced the city fathers together in meeting, for most of them wanted to go to the show, and most of them did go, for they finished the business in short order.

The only business of importance that was on the program was the allowance of the monthly bills, as follows:

Robert Forster, $354.99; J. R. Means, street commissioner, $218.85; A. J. Bean, $22.70; M. E. Kees, $7.92; L. G. Frazier, $11.25; Turner Transfer Company, $3; Light & Power Company, $297; E. K. and C. J. Baker, $1; W. R. Withee, $2; John D. Brown, $2; James Thompson, $2; Geary Kimbrell, $12.50; Pendleton Tribune, $35; Carl Churchill, $6; E. J. Murphy, $2; Water Company, $50; W. S. Wells, $600; Crane & Co., $16.80; Hohach Brothers, $3.

The council allowed the fire chief, W. R. Withee, $50 for the expenses of a trip to Olympia as a delegate to the Northwest Association of Fire Chiefs, which will meet in that city in the near future, and the chief was given permission to go as a delegate from this city and represent the Pendleton fire department.

The report of G. N. Miller, the city engineer who has charge of the sewer construction work, was received. The work of construction for the last month has cost $8,414.07, which amount was ordered to be paid. The engineer reported that there has been about two miles of the sewer laid up to this time, and that all of the pipe for the work had come and was ready for use as fast as the work could be done.

Hose company No. 4 asked the council for 500 feet of hose and the matter was referred to the fire committee, and the fire chief, with power to act.

Policeman Turner asked for a vacation and the petition was granted, and he was allowed a month off without pay.

A communication was read from J. L. Berry, one of the Quaker doctors, now at Baker City, in relation to the license that the city asks of them for the privilege of showing in this city. The doctor is willing to pay $10 a day and pay a month in advance for the good of the people, but he thinks that the ordinance is excessive in its demands, and refuses to pay what the city asks. He says that he will "work the city" anyway, but would like to do it, without too much cutting of the profits of the showing. No action was taken in regard to the letter.

The council adjourned after listening to the reading of the letter from the Baker City man.

POLICE COURT.

Three Drunk and Disorderlies and One Dispenser of Whiskey.

T. Davis, a transient, was also up before the city court for the crime of being drunk, and was fined $5; but as he had not the money he will be the guest of the city for three days. Wild Bill, an Indian, found some firewater some place in the city, and took too much of it, and as a result left $5 in the care of the city judge, which amount he has not as yet been around to claim.

J. R. Franklin, an old offender, was caught passing whiskey into the city jail, and was given 15 days in which to discover the error of his ways.

POMONA TO SPOKANE.

Very Little Girl Makes a Long Journey Alone.

This morning when Conductor E. B. Conan came in with the morning train from Portland, he had with him and under his care a little passenger, perhaps the youngest that has made the trip for some time alone. Edna Frantz was the name of the little girl and she was so small that when she sat at the breakfast table this morning at the Hotel Pendleton, her chin just came above her plate, and yet the little lady had traveled all alone from Pomona, Cal., to Portland, and from there is going to Spokane, where her mother is residing.

Edna has been living with relatives in the California city for some time, having been left there by her mother, who is a widow, until...at lady could go to Spokane, where she had friends, and arrange for a home for herself and child. After some months the time came when Mrs. Frantz was able to have her girl come to her, and she sent to her the money for the trip.

The aunt in California bought the ticket, and putting a tag on the little girl which told her destination and name, placed the little passenger in the care of the conductor and started her on the long journey. After changes in San Francisco, Edna reached Portland, where she was taken in charge by the matron of the boys' and girls' aid society until her train was ready to start. The girl was put in the care of Conductor Conan, who watched over her on the trip up the river and took her to the hotel when the train reached this city. After having breakfast, the kindly conductor put his charge on the Spokane train, and sent her on to the mother, who is awaiting her arrival in that city.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Plaintiff Also Asks Care and Custody of The Children.

Grace Hudspeth, through her attorney, Will M. Peterson, has filed in the office of the county clerk an action for divorce against her husband, Robert Hudspeth.

The plaintiff alleges in her complaint that she and the defendant were married at Athena, November 16, 1890, and that ever since that abuse on the part of the defendant, a good and dutiful wife. There are three children the fruit of the union—Mabel, aged 12, Lephay, aged 10, and Grover, aged 9, the latter being in the custody of the defendant.

Cruel and inhuman treatment is the plea of the plaintiff, who alleges a course of varied and unnatural abuse on the part of the defendant and asks the court for a divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now in existence, and awarding to the care and custody of the plaintiff the minor children, the issue of the marriage.

Engineers Refuse to Take Risk.

Yesterday afternoon Engineers Oliver, Dreifson and Jett, of the O. R. & N., were discharged at La Grande because they refused to go out when called, on engine 300, one of the freight compounds, for the reason that they considered the boiler unsafe. Since the explosion of the boiler at Weatherby, last Friday, the men have been more or less nervous, and fear that the accident will be repeated on some of the engines which have been leaking badly. Engineers Allen and Nick Biever were also called for the same engine, but were unable to go on account of sickness.

Greatorex-North.

On Tuesday evening, September 1, at 8 o'clock, in the parlors of the Hotel Eastern, Mr. Burton R. North and Miss Inella M. Greatorex were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. E. B. Jones officiating. The bride and groom are both residents of Milton, and expect to make their future home there. The wedding was very quiet and informal, there being present only a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The wedding party will remain at the Hotel Eastern until tomorrow, when they will return to Milton.

Thresh in the Nez Perce.

W. W. Gillette, of this city, will move his threshing outfit to the Nez Perce country this evening, over the W. & C. R. During the season Mr. Gillette has been busy in this part of the country, but now that the harvest here is over he will take advantage of the lateness of the season in the other section and will go there for the rest of the harvest. Besides the machine, the crew necessary to run it will go at the same time.

Will Visit at Spokane.

John Kelly, of the O. R. & N., accompanied by his sister, Miss Lizzie Kelly, of Minneapolis, left this morning for Spokane, where they will be the guests of relatives and friends for a short time. After Mr. Kelly has visited during his vacation time in the Washington city, he will return here to his position on the road, and his sister will return to her home in the East.

At Shields' Park.

In spite of a strong counter attraction last night, the park had the usual large attendance. Comedy week is being greatly enjoyed by the patrons of this popular resort. The members this week are unusually good and the special features arranged for Thursday night, as amateur night, should not be forgotten.

Reservation Lots Sold.

N. Howland has sold to the Pendleton Savings Bank for $1,700, lots 5, 6 and 7 in block 5, in the reservation addition to Pendleton, the same being subject to a mortgage of $900 given in favor of Thomas M. Harkey, of this city.

RIFLED THE TILL

O. R. & N. TICKET OFFICE WAS ROBBED.

Night Operator and Ticket Agent Both Absent at the Time—Nothing Missing Except the Cash in the Till—Only One Clue, and That is Very Slight.

Last evening the office of the O. R. & N. ticket office was broken into and the till robbed of $40.80. L. L. Perry, the night operator, had charge of the office at the time, and having occasion to communicate with the crew of the switching department, left the office for a minute and when he returned the till had been opened and the money taken.

R. R. Wolf, the ticket agent, had been in the office all the evening working on his monthly report, but had stepped out just as the other man left, and in the absence of both of them the deed was done.

An iron shelf bracket was used to gain entrance into the till, but it is not known how the men got into the office for the door had been closed when the man left. The till was broken in the efforts of the men to get at the contents. The cabinet holding the tickets was also broken into, but none of the tickets were taken.

The work was quickly done, and there are no clues that will definitely point the blame in any one direction. In the till there was a $5 gold piece and a $5 bill, and shortly after the robbery took place and before it was known on the outside, a man came into the St. George restaurant and asked for a $10 gold piece in exchange for a bill and some gold. The money was given him and he left the place, but whether or not the men in the restaurant knew him is not at this time known. Other than that faint clue the police have nothing on which to work. The inside of the till was found buck of the round-house by one of the workmen this morning.

NOT GOOD, NOT HERE

They Lead the Procession

The popularity of Swift's products among all classes is very largely due to the absolutely clean and hygienic conditions under which each carcass is dressed, and the meat and the food products prepared and inspected. This is particularly true of Swift's Premium Ham and Bacon. From the sleek, corn-fed hogs in the pens, the carefully selected hams and bacon in the smokehouse, the final expert inspection by the U. S. government, and, lastly, the dainty wrapping in parchment paper, each step in the evolution of these nutritious and appetizing products is a guarantee that they will always please.
