THE BURGOMASTER.

Ancient New York in Drama and Song, September 21.

Pixley & Luders' greatest musical comedy success, "The Burgomaster," with a big company of 60 people, new production and new costumes, and the famous original cast of principals, which first brought the opera into prominence, will be the attraction at the Frazer theater next Monday night. No other musical comedy ever produced in this country ever had so many catchy airs. Frank Pixley and Gustave Luders had but one object in writing "The Burgomaster." Pixley wrote words that made the people laugh; Luders wrote music to set the feet dancing and to make one whistle.

The big company this year includes such well known people as Ruth White in her original role of "Willie," Oscar L. Flanagan as the Burgomaster, Thomas Ricketts, William Riley Hatch, Charles Sharp, R. J. Moye, George McKissick, Helen Dexter, Harriet Sheldon.

The sale of seats for "The Burgomaster" will open September 15, at 9 a.m.

ABOUT AS USUAL.

Grant County Not Badly Overstocked as Has Been Stated.

There is not at this time in the John Day valley the discrepancy between the number of head of stock on hand, horses, sheep and cattle, and the necessary amount of feed for them that is claimed at home and published abroad. The News has made inquiry of some of the leading stockmen, who have stock for which they must buy hay, as well as from farmers who have surplus hay to sell to stockmen, and although there is some difference in the estimate they generally agree that there is not more than 15 or 20 per cent more cattle than the amount of hay on hand will feed through an ordinary winter. That is to say, stockmen dispose of 15 or 20 head out of every 100 they will have no difficulty in finding feed for the remainder — Grant County News.
