SOME WITHDRAW

QUEEN CANDIDATES WILL NOT STAY IN RACE.

Contest is Becoming a Warm One as the Merchants Have Interested Themselves in the matter—Miss Blanche Shull is in the Lead by Ten Votes—Other Candidates May Drop Out.

The interest in the contest for the queen of the carnival is growing and the votes are beginning to come in thick and fast. The merchants of the city have interested themselves in the matter and most of them have some favorite who either is now in the race or will be in a day or so, when it is thought that the chances for a good start will be at the best. Many of the people of the city have candidates for the honor which they will bring forward as soon as they think they have arranged for the right time in which to launch their boom. In fact, it is warming up on all sides and the end of the week will see the homestretch of a pretty race.

This morning word was received at the office of the East Oregonian that Miss Stella Alexander wished to retire from the race for the queenship. Miss Alexander wished to thank her friends who had honored her, but owing to circumstances known to herself, she did not care to remain a candidate.

Mrs. Matlock Withdraws.

Mrs. Wesley Matlock also wishes her friends to allow her to resign from the race. Mrs. Matlock had 225 votes today when the ballots were counted and her retirement from the contest is a disappointment to her friends.

The result of the ballot today is as follows:
Miss Blanche Shull 290
Miss Nellie McMullen 289
Miss Edna Thompson 190
Miss Maude Sheridan, who was also among the candidates yesterday, has expressed a wish that her name be not considered owing to the fact that she leaves Friday for college, and will not be in the city during the time of the carnival.

Miss Thompson is a new candidate, her name having been introduced since the counting of the ballots yesterday.

Good Stock Exhibit.

The interest in the stock exhibit is also growing and some of the men from the country who are interested in stock have begun to make inquiries as to the conditions of entering their stock. Mr. Halley is daily receiving queries about his department of the work and it is now thought that there will be an exhibition of stock here such has never been seen in the eastern part of the state. From now on the affair will boom.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. H. Ferguson, of Adams was a business visitor in the city last evening.
Mrs. Jennie Morrison, of Arlington, was the guest of Pendleton friends yesterday.
Mrs. Pruet, of Baker City, and son were the guests of friends in the city yesterday.
Miss Edna Catching is visiting relatives and friends in Portland, where she will spend her vacation.
R. N. Dunn, of Wallace, Idaho, prosecuting attorney of Shoshone county, was in the city yesterday.
Mrs. E. C. Callender, of Portland, returned to her home this morning after a visit with friends and relatives in this city.
Mrs. Jennie Bates, formerly Miss Jordan of this city, but now of Medford, is the guest of Miss Ethel Thompson, of this city.
Mrs. N. Freeland, of Gilliam, Wash., visited friends in the city yesterday on her way home from a visit with friends in the interior of the country.
J. J. Balleray left this morning for Portland, where he goes to transact business. While away Judge Balleray will visit with ex-Governor W. P. Lord, at the home of the latter in Salem.
The Rev. B. F. Harper, Eastern Oregon missionary for the Presbyterian Sunday schools, passed through the city last night, having made another trip to Elgin.—La Grande Observer.

Colonel Brengle Strong Speaker.
The meeting of the Salvation Army at the Methodist church last night was well attended. Colonel Brengle is a man of great power as a speaker, and his remarks were listened to with deep attention by the large audience. Ensign Mabey was a revelation to the people as a singer and his work was much appreciated. This evening there will be another meeting at the same place.

Back to the Park.

The Shields' attractions will be presented tonight in the open air, because of the settled, open and warm weather, and will continue in the old place until the weather is again inclement.

Fall Trade Good

It is good and that's a fact says Mr. Finerman to our reporter. How do you account for it, when others are complaining about the fall trade I asked him. Why, I do not know any other good reason than that the people have found out that we are actually selling better shoes for the money or the same quality for less money than others do. It is really remarkable how many people there are who remark about the "wearing quality" of our shoes. Now that is what we pay for and you get when you buy Douglas or Gloria or Red Schoolhouse Shoes. These shoes are sold at a price and no one attempts to undersell them—they simply can't and live. We have found the least margin of resistance to trade and that accounts for our increase this fall. Now watch us sell shoes. We carry shoes on five widths in all foot form lasts—in all leathers, heights, styles, sizes, weights, etc. "Say, don't that boy talk some?" I thought as I went on my way with a fine pair of the Douglas shoes on from the
