

NEWS OF MILTON

STUDENT FROM HEPPNER TO COLUMBIA COLLEGE.

One Removal to Idaho, Another to Washington—Farewell Party to Rev. Sanderson and Wife—Dallas Garred Will Attend Whitman College—Various Goings and Comings.

Milton, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Mary H. Merrifield is in Walla Walla visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. J. L. Etam.

Miss Nora Kelly went to Walla Walla Friday, where for several weeks she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davidson, of Pendleton, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Besley Humiston, who are the grandparents of Mrs. Davidson.

Ralph Johnson arrived here Saturday night from his home at Heppner and will enter Columbia College next week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Horn, of Walla Walla, spent Sunday here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wandling.

J. E. Nichols and Dr. S. Archibald Fulton made a business trip to Walla Walla yesterday.

Miss Mabel Overman, who had made her home here with her sister, Mrs. A. E. McKnight, for several years, took her departure this morning for Rosette, Idaho, where she will hereafter reside with her mother.

C. D. Walter left this morning for Elk, Wash., where he has obtained a position in a large sawmill.

Dallas Garred went to Walla Walla this morning and will attend Whitman College this year.

Rev. G. H. Gibbs, Rev. J. M. Compton, Rev. H. S. Shangle returned yesterday morning from Walla Walla, where they have been attending the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, conference.

Good-bye Party.

Last night a farewell party was given Rev. D. C. Sanderson and wife at the M. E. church. Short speeches were given by Rev. G. H. Gibbs, Rev. Charles McCaughey, Rev. R. L. Cartwright and Professor W. C. Howard. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The church presented Rev. Sanderson and wife with a handsome rag. It is with a great feeling of regret that they are not to remain here another year. They leave in the morning for their new field of labor at Pomeroy, Wash.

BRIGGSON ITEMS.

Death of an Infant From Cholera Infantum—Abundant Rains—Visitor From British Columbia—Recovering From Typhoid Fever.

Briggson, Sept. 16.—Cattlemen have begun to take their cattle to the valley for wintering. A good many of them are in poor condition owing to the extremely dry season.

Mrs. Mattie Fanning, of Cold Springs, who has been paying a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Abrahamson, returned home today.

Morris, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gilmore, died at their home on Wild Horse last Sunday, after a short illness of cholera infantum. Morris was a bright and lovable child and the friends of the grief-stricken parents extend to them their heartfelt sympathies in this, the hour of their sad bereavement.

Swan Peterson, from Kaslo, B. C., is here on a short visit to his family. He also visited his brother in Pendleton one day last week.

The heavy showers of the past week have stopped threshing, which was well under headway here. The indications today are of more pleasant weather, which is anxiously looked for by those who yet have grain in the shocks.

James Navin went to Adams Monday, where he is employed at digging a well for J. O. Hale.

Sam Rose, who has been confined to his home for the past two months with typhoid, is doing nicely, though he is not yet able to leave the house.

A. M. Gillis and A. B. McEwen took their cattle out to winter pasture last Thursday. They have about 80 head.
