COMMERCE—TRADE

DECLINE OCCURS IN THE PRICE OF SUGAR.

There is a Big Difference in the Price of Grapes, But it is Due to the Fruit From California Arriving—A Decided Drop Has Occurred in Price of Steers.

Sugar has gone down and flour has gone up, and there are a few little changes otherwise in the market, though not enough to cause any worry on the part of the small consumer. It is possible for the housewife to get 14 pounds of the best granulated sugar now for $1, while last week she had to pay the same amount for 13 pounds.

Flour, on the other hand, has risen a few cents and now sells for $4.50 to the barrel. Grapes have widened out in their margin and are now selling at from 4 to 10 cents to the pound. This wide difference is due to the fact that the California grapes are now in the market and are commanding the top price.

The principal and most important change in the list has been the drop in the price of steers. From $3.40 to $3.50 they have gone down to $3.25 and $3.40. Last week it was thought that the price had dropped as far as it would go for a time, but this week sees another slide and the end is not yet in sight. The buyers seem to have the growers where they want them and are pinching them as it suits their fancy. But still the growers want to sell and from day to day there are carload lots shipped to the city markets where they are sold at a good profit. However, owing to the shortage in the feed the farmers have to thin their stock and it is supposed they think it is better to get a little less for them than to feed them at a loss.

Portland Markets.

Portland, Sept. 17.—Wheat—Walla Walla, 78c; bluestem, 82c; valley, 80c.

Barley—Feed, $1.90 to 2.00 per ton; brewing, $2.10; rolled, $2.10 to $2.15.

Cattle—Best steers, $3.75; medium, $3.50 to $3.60; cows, $2.50 to $2.75.

Hogs—Heavy (175 pounds and up), $6.25; medium fair hogs, $5.50 to $6.

Sheep—Best wethers, $2.75; mixed sheep, $2.50.

Portland, Sept. 17.—Wheat—Market is about unchanged. It was steady and strong early on the advance on corn, but turned dull later in the day. Cables were steady. Cash markets also about unchanged. Nothing doing in the way of export business. Broomhall cables that Russia and the Danube are still offering wheat freely, and that this depresses Liverpool prices. Indications throughout the Northwest are for better weather. Bradstreet world's reports visible as having increased 6,000,000 for the week. Armour was supposed to have sold wheat through brokers. There is no change in the tenor of Northwestern advices. Improved weather is due, and as the rains have delayed the movement, good weather should increase it. Without an improved export demand an increased movement will now begin piling up stocks. Until American prices are on a par with European prices we are inclined to think it will be rather difficult to maintain an advance, or even to maintain the present level; even with a fair export demand we are likely to accumulate stocks during the next few weeks, and without an export demand we are likely to increase them quite rapidly.

San Francisco Markets.

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—Grain options were moderately active. Wheat opened higher, but closed weaker influenced by Chicago changes. Spot prices were nominally unchanged. December barley was well sustained all day, but the cash market was quieter and easier, though available supplies were light. Flour was firm. Hay and feedstuffs were fairly steady.

Receipts of deciduous fruits were generally light and prices for most kinds were steady with a fair local trade and some shipping demand for grapes for the Portland steamer.

Wheat—Shipping, $1.43½ to $1.47½; milling, $1.50 to $1.60.

Barley—Feed, $1.12½ to $1.15; brewing, $1.20 to $1.25.

Wool Markets.

Boston, Sept. 17.—There is a quiet tone in the wool market although there has been a fair amount of wool moving. Manufacturers are just buying enough for current needs in the hope that prices may weaken, but there does not seem to be a weak spot in the market. Prices are very firm and dealers say the margin of profit is very small. Quotations:
