BOUND OVER.

He Stole Money From the School Children.

A. A. Hallweg, under arrest for burglary, waived examination yesterday before Judge Messick and was bound over for trial in the circuit court in the sum of $1,000. In default of bail he was committed to jail. This is the young man who was caught in the act of robbing the cash box in Parker's Studio Sunday night.—Baker City Democrat.

This is the man who was arrested in this city last March accused of having stolen money from the cloak room of the high school. He was chased down town by some of the students of the school and was convicted on trial and given 30 days in the county jail for the offense.

Hallweg also served three months in the county jail at Walla Walla, where he was arrested for beating a four-months' board bill at the Hotel State, of Walla Walla. He represented himself there as a music teacher and instructor in dead languages, and figured as one of the 400 of that place.

The secret has at last leaked out. Lipton says the reason the Shamrock lost was because she wasn't fast enough.

IT PAYS TO TRADE AT THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

Cloak and Suit Department

New Suits and Coats for Autumn

A Woman Chooses here with the Certainty of Choosing Correctly

The head of our Cloak and Suit Department visited all the leading cloak houses in the East, so we are able to show what is being worn in the fashion centers. We can show you some of the garments displayed in the CONGRESS OF FASHIONS recently held in New York. Tailor suits will be in great demand this fall. The radical change in the suit jacket from short to long is reason enough. The straight round walking skirt suit has gained in popularity and will sell largely. Many fancy materials are in evidence, especially Home-spuns, Mixtures and the Mannish Materials.

The Hindoo is responsible for many amazing efforts of translation. A missionary, lately returned from India, tells how once, when he wished to have the beautiful hymn: "Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee," translated into Hindoo, he entrusted the task to a very clever young native student. To the missionary's amazement, the Hindoo version when retranslated into English, ran thus: "Very old stone, split for my benefit. Let me absent myself under one of your fragments," which was not quite what the author of the hymn meant to convey.

Fall Trade Good

It is good and that's a fact says Mr. Finneran to our reporter. How do you account for it, when others are complaining about the fall trade I asked him. Why, I do not know any other good reason than that the people have found out that we are actually selling better shoes for the money or the same quality for less money than others do. It is really remarkable how many people there are who remark about the "wearing quality" of our shoes. Now that is what we pay for and you get when you buy Douglas or Gloria or Red Schoolhouse Shoes. These shoes are sold at a price and no one attempts to undersell them—they simply can't and live. We have found the least margin of resistance to trade and that accounts for our increase this fall. Now watch us sell shoes. We carry shoes on five widths in all foot form lasts—in all leathers, heights, styles, sizes, weights, etc. "Say, don't that boy talk some?" I thought as I went on my way with a fine pair of the Douglas shoes on from the
