Some Peaches.

Mrs. J. W. Sparks, who lives on Birch Creek, brought to this office a box of peaches that certainly are a revelation of what Umatilla county can do in the way of peaches. They are of the "New Prolific" variety and are freestone. They are of delicious flavor and extremely large in size. One taken from the box at random measured 9 1/4 inches in circumference. They were gathered from trees set out three years ago.

ANONYMOUS SNEAK

PROPOSITION MADE BY A COWARD TO CITY COUNCIL.

Offers to Pay a License for Engaging in the Hold-Up Business—Communication is Full of Sneaking Insinuations—City Officials Will Pay No Attention to it.

There is a spirit of childishness and facetiousness abroad in the land, and an underhanded desire for revenge at the expense of men who have no way to parry a blow struck in the dark and behind the back of the victim. There are two persons in the world more contemptible and mean than all the rest: The Italian brigand who steals behind an unsuspecting man and by a blow in the back robs him of life; and the witless writer of anonymous epistles, who, by false and ungrounded insinuations and under the cloak of an assumed name, attempts to rob him of his good reputation and report of honest intention.

Such a man or men has now burst forth in all his glory and pride, with the following communication to the council. Whatever the right or wrong of the matter, whatever the justice of the insinuations, the size of the author and the magnitude of his soul are manifest in the spirit of his writing, and it needs no further comment to place him in the rank in which he belongs:

Robbers and Blow,
Wallula Wash., Sept. 18, '03.

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Pendleton:

Gentlemen—I represent a class of men who are not addicted to hard labor, but make their living by holding up the unsuspecting citizen, including the business men, and if need be would put the said citizen down with a sand-bag or by any other means secure such valuables as he may possess, either in jewelry or coin of the realm; and I should like to come over to your town for a couple of weeks and ply my trade.

We are willing to pay into the city treasury the sum of $25 per day; $200 we will pay in advance, the balance to be paid on the expiration of our contract.

If you do not see fit to take this offer we will fight you from June to eternity, and we do not care a whoop in Heppner whether you take it or not, because we are coming anyway. Let us hear from you by return mail or answer us through one of our numerous law firms, whom we have employed in your city to work this graft, and keep us out of the penitentiary.

Hoping to receive a favorable reply and thereby avoid unnecessary exer-

QUEEN OF CARNIVAL

NEW CANDIDATE IS BEING VOTED UPON.

Leading Candidate Is But Few Votes Ahead—Stock Exhibit of Coming Carnival Will Be a Great Feature—Two Thousand Personal Invitations Have Been Issued.

John Hailey, knowing that he would be unable to return to the city in time to open the ballot boxes in the carnival queen contest, mailed the keys to Mr. Wilson, and the votes were counted this afternoon, polling as follows:

Miss Nellie McMullen 321
Miss Blanch Shull 292
Miss Myrtle Smith 175
Miss Smith is a new candidate, her name having been introduced since the boxes were last opened.

The stock exhibit of the carnival seems to be the coming feature, as many inquiries are coming in to the manager as to the detail of the show and the nature of the prizes to be offered and the requirements of entering. These queries are being answered as fast as they are received, and it is thought that the stock exhibit will be one of the best that has ever been held in the eastern part of the state.

Nearly 2000 invitations have been sent out to the farmers of the county, inviting them to come into the city and bring their stock for exhibition. The event is being well advertised, and from the looks of things at this time, it will be a grand success.

At Shields' Park.

Shields' Park still keeps to the front in public interest. What, with the Chinese impersonators, the Irish and negro impersonators, the moving pictures, the farces and the illustrated songs, and the keen interest taken in the prize drawings, there is no excuse for the public not filling the park.

Looking for Location.

Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Starr and family of Denver, are in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Penland. Dr. Starr is an osteopath, and is in the West looking for a location. He will visit Albany, Eugene and other points before locating in any place.

Case of Diphtheria.

The little son of George Mansfield, who resides with his parents at the family home on Bluff street, is sick with diphtheria, and the case has been reported to the city health officers. The house has been quarantined and there is no danger of a spread of the disease.

STABBED AT HELIX

SERIOUS RESULT OF A SALOON QUARREL.

First Round Was a Fist Fight in Which the Man With the Knife Was Worst—Wounded Man Seriously Hurt—His Assailant is at Large.

Last evening an ugly stabbing affair arose in Starr's saloon at Helix, over a slight misunderstanding between Lefe Wimpe and Charles Faschnie, both of that city. The men went into the saloon, according to one story, to get a drink before going to supper, and while there became angry and Faschnie drew a knife on the other man. Wimpe knocked his assailant down a couple of times, but the third time failed to get his blow in, and Faschnie caught him with his knife. He stabbed the prostrate man six or seven times, and some of the wounds are considered dangerous, but not necessarily fatal. One of the cuts penetrated into the cavity below the heart, and is thought to have pierced the lung.

The injured man was taken to the office of Drs. Griswold and Hume and his wounds cared for, after which he was taken to his home, where he is resting as well as could be expected considering the nature of his hurts.

In the excitement consequent on the trouble the assailant was allowed to go, and has not been seen since the time of the fight. The sheriff was notified and has a pretty good idea of the whereabouts of the man, and hopes to have him in custody in a short time.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Powell, Houston, Texas, says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy.
