"EAST LYNN" COMING.

Popular Old Play to be at the Frazer Two Nights Next Week, October 7 and 8.
M. L. Quinn, advance agent for "East Lynn," the popular and attractive old play, is in the city today, and has arranged for two performances at the Frazer next week, October 7 and 8.
The company presenting "East Lynn" is a strong one, and comes highly recommended from the coast towns where it has played. This will prove a valued addition to the attractions for carnival week, and the people from the distant parts of the county will have an opportunity to witness one of the best old plays on the road, while in the city for the carnival.
Mr. Quinn leaves tonight for La Grande, where the play will be next presented. Baker City will be skipped over, and the next stop after La Grande, will be Boise City.

WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE

Excursion to Walla Walla, Sunday, October 4th.

On Sunday, October 4th, the O. R. & N. Co. will run an excursion to Walla Walla and return, leaving Pendleton at 8:15 a. m., returning leave Walla Walla at 10:30 p. m. Fare for the round trip only $1. Sunday will be the last day of the Fruit Fair at Walla Walla and will wind up in a blaze of glory. This low rate made by the O. R. & N. Co. gives the people of Pendleton the opportunity of seeing the wind-up of the fair as also a chance to make a visit to the Garden City. Ellery's famous Italian band has been engaged to furnish music on this occasion and a visit to the fair will be well worth the trip. The low excursion rate made for this day will also enable all who desire to make a delightful trip and visit friends in Walla Walla.

Enroll for Primary Grade.

Children 6 years old wishing to enter the primary class in any of the city schools, will please enroll by Monday, October 6. Those not enrolled at that time must wait until the beginning of the winter term.
E. B. CONKLIN,
City Supt. Public Schools.

Fall Trade Good

It is good and that's a fact says Mr. Pinneran to our reporter. How do you account for it, when others are complaining about the fall trade I asked him. Why, I do not know any other good reason than that the people have found out that we are actually selling better shoes for the money or the same quality for less money than others do. It is really remarkable how many people there are who remark about the "wearing quality" of our shoes. Now that is what you pay for and you get when you buy Douglas or Gloria or Red Schoolhouse Shoes. These shoes are sold at a price and no one attempts to undersell them—they simply can't and live. We have found the least margin of resistance to trade and that accounts for our increase this fall. Now watch us sell shoes. We carry shoes on five widths in all foot form lasts—in all leathers, heights, styles, sizes, weights, etc. "Say, don't that boy talk some?" I thought as I went on my way with a fine pair of the Douglas shoes on from the
