PENDLETON RETAIL MARKETS

Quotations on Staples Furnished by Local Merchants and Revised Daily.

There is practically nothing doing in the grain market in Pendleton nor Walla Walla. The farmers are waiting for the certain raise and no wheat is moving.

Livestock, especially fat cattle, are moving slowly in the interior. It is impossible to believe that the present prices for beef will long continue. There is a demand for fat cattle and hogs on the Sound and Portland, and while feed is somewhat scarce, there is no evidence that cattle will go any lower. The next move will more than likely be upward. There are only half as many cattle being fed in the county as last winter, and the demand is just as great and if stockmen do not get scared and unload their stock in a hurry, they will undoubtedly realize something nearer a fair price than that now prevalent.

La Grande shippers have just received a consignment of fat hogs from Omaha, for their Portland customers.

How to Sell a Crop and Still Have it.

A great many farmers carry their crops for a long time after harvest waiting for an advance in prices. Those who need money can get a large part of the value of their crop out in money and still hold the grain for an advance in the following manner:
Suppose a farmer has 5,000 bushels of wheat which he can sell at 65 cents a bushel; let him sell it and receive $3,250 in payment; then let him buy 5,000 bushels of May wheat and margin it 5 cents a bushel. This will require $329.00. He will then have $2,921.00 to use as he sees fit. If the price of May wheat goes up five cents per bushel, he will make $250 the same as if he had held his 5,000 bushels of wheat in his granary.
Yours for consideration,

When You Order FROM US

you are sure of two things:
1st. You can't get as good for less money.
2nd. You can't get better at any price.

Low price is an argument no real salesman cares to use. It is the best evidence that his goods are weak on quality—and quality is remembered long after price is forgotten.

The quality of our brand gives us the biggest blue-ribbon business on the coast.

It will do as much for you.
