LIVESTOCK NOTES

RANGE OVERSTOCKED AND FORAGES SCARCE.

Claimed By A Buyer There is Not Feed For One-Third the Cattle in This County—Stated That Montana Buyers Will Not Materialize—Some Remarks on Valley Feeding.

J. C. Lonergan is in the city, having come in from the South Fork and Ukiah country, where he has been buying cattle for his big shipments for this month, the first of which will be on Tuesday next, when he will ship over 20 cars from this city.

The interior of the county is burned up as far as pasture is concerned, so Mr. Lonergan says. There is not feed for one-third of the cattle in the county, and the growers cannot afford to pay $8 for hay, haul it to their stock and then feed them through the winter. They are selling everything that they can dispose of and are not getting rid of many at that. Most of the beef cattle in the country are now disposed of, but all the range and stock cattle are yet in the way, and the men are hustling to get feed for them during the winter.

More Forage or Fewer Cattle.

According to Mr. Lonergan, the cattle men of the country must do two things in order to make money by their stock: One is to cut their herds in half, and the other is to raise twice as much feed for the remainder as they do at the present time. When they do that they will be able to have fat cattle and realize good prices from the sale of their stock. The country is eaten out, and there is a strong probability that the stock will suffer before spring unless some big sales are made before the winter is over. Some of the growers have feed for their stock, but these men are few and far between, and the majority are looking for a way out of the dilemma.

The story about the Montana men coming into the country for cattle is a myth, for the men there are loaded to the guards with stock and have no room for more, though there are some of the growers from the Dakotas who have a place for more stock than they have at this time, but the chances are that they would want the cattle so cheap that the growers of this county could not afford to sell them at the figure they would offer.

As to Webfoot Feeding.

If a man had feed in the valley and could get the stock there, he might make a deal, though the cattle from this country do not winter in the wet country very well when taken from the dry ranges of Eastern Oregon unless they are very well fed and sheltered. But if the buyer had cheap feed and plenty of it the investment would be a good one, as the stock could be either shipped or driven over the mountains at this time of the year.

WARDE AND JAMES COMING.

Will appear at the Frazer in "Alexander the Great," October 14.

Warde and James, who have appeared before appreciative audiences in this city many times in the past, are to bring their new play, "Alexander the Great," to the Frazer on October 14.

This play was written especially for them during the winter of 1902-3, and the roles are adapted to their peculiarly strong histrionic ability. The scope of this play is wider than that of either "Virginius" or "Spartacus," and the great tragedians find greater breadth for acting than in their former favorite numbers. Pendleton theater-goers look forward to this attraction with a great deal of pleasure and the veterans need no introduction here.

Nixon Will Sell Tickets.

After this week, Manager R. J. Nixon, of the Frazer, will sell the theater tickets himself, as he has more time to give to the matter, and will make a specialty of locating seats and sending them to patrons by messenger, whenever ordered. The seats for "East Lynne" will be sold by L. G. Frazier, after which the tickets will be found at the opera house, where Mr. Nixon will take pleasure in answering telephone calls and giving information in regard to the attractions coming to the city.

A Perfect Painless Pill.

Is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by Tallman & Co.

NATIONAL PRISON CONGRESS.

Humanitarian Workers From All Over the Country.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 3.—Prison wardens, chaplains and commissioners, together with many humanitarians and organized charity workers, are here from various parts of the country to attend the annual session of the National Prison Congress, which will be held during the next three or four days. The congress has for its general purpose the betterment of conditions in the prisons throughout the country and improvements in the system of prison management.

Captain Samuel C. Lemly, Judge Advocate General of the United States navy; General R. Brinkerhoff at Mansfield, O., and Mrs. Emma O. Sullivan, superintendent of the Andrew Mercer Reformatory for Women at Toronto, are some of those who will take a prominent part in the congress. The program provides for visits of inspection to the Kentucky state prison at Frankfort and the Indiana state reformatory at Jeffersonville.

HAWAIIAN BONDS.

Will Be Accepted as Security for Government Money.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Secretary Shaw this afternoon authorized acceptance by the treasury department as security for deposits of government money, $1,250,000 Hawaiian bonds, of which the territory desired to dispose.

First Sheep to Leave Mountains.

The first band of sheep to come from the mountains this fall was that of J. H. Hoskins, of Butter Creek. They passed through Pilot Rock on last Saturday. Several other bands have come in since. The grass is coming up on the winter range in fine style, and sheepmen say the outlook for grass is better than in several years.—Pilot Rock Record.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes News.

San Francisco, Oct. 5. To F. W. Schmidt's Pharmacy: Dear Sirs—There are daily occurrences in this city that ought to be known all over the world. A gentleman old and octogenarian, a distant relative of Robert Fulton, of first steamship fame, has saved the lives of hundreds (probably thousands) after they were believed to be beyond human aid. His discovery is undoubtedly the long-sought cure for Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

This is not easy of belief, and it is the purpose of a number of business and professional men of this city (of whom I am one) to tell the people. You are hereby authorized to tell all those in your city who have either Bright's Disease or Diabetes, that nearly nine-tenths of them can recover. Among the business men who are giving moral and financial support and who would give neither if the above was not strictly true, are Hon. D. M. Burns, President Caudellaria Mining Company; Edward Mills, President of Bullock & Jones Company; Captain Roberts, President Boca and Loyalton R. Co.; Thos. Kirkpatrick, Capitalist; D. E. Bender, Capitalist; W. C. Price, Capitalist; Wm. Sharp, Capitalist; C. W. Clark, Capitalist, and many others. The pamphlets herewith are to be given to all inquirers without charge. They give the complete history of our long and exhaustive investigation. Yours truly, A. E. SHATTUCK, President Pacific States Type Foundry.

"EAST LYNN" COMING.

Old Favorite to Appear at the Frazer October 6 and 7.

Paradox of paradoxes! "East Lynne"—a comedy? What next? For 50 years our forefathers have wept over the misfortunes of Lady Isabel and cursed the villainy of Sir Francis Levison. And yet here is the announcement that J. Frazer Crosby, Jr. will present a scenic revival of "East Lynne" with Inez Forman and John Dillon at the head of the cast. That old veteran comedian, John Dillon, in "East Lynne?" To look at him means to laugh, and he can't open his mouth without causing you hysterics. Still John Dillon is to be given wide-way for his many pranks and witticisms. In the leading role Miss Forman herself makes Lady Isabel a veritable Lady Babbie in the first two acts.

And, by the way, one of the best Eastern critics has said that in this line Miss Forman showed her worthiness of being classed with Maud Adams.

It certainly is a bold undertaking to stem the tide of popular tradition as to how "East Lynne" should be played, and with one stroke to transfer the piece from the category of tragedy into that of serio-comedy. But there are reasons for this radical revision and they are so valid that we now wonder how the discovery comes so late. For they are in strict accord with the public demands of present day drama. At the Frazer Tuesday and Wednesday nights by special request.

Callerton—Did you employ a typewriter to copy your manuscript? Scribbles—I thought I did, but on looking over the copy I discovered I had employed a typewriter.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
