BICKERS REMOVED

SUPERINTENDENT OF REFORM SCHOOL LOSES HIS HEAD.

N. H. Looney Formerly State Senator Gets the Place—First Serious Rupture in the State Board—Politics in it.

The Salem Statesman gives the following account of the removal of H. E. Bickers, as superintendent of the reform school, which took place Monday at a meeting of the state board of control:

"The first serious difference of opinion which has arisen before the members of the state board, consisting of Governor Chamberlain, Secretary Dunbar and Treasurer Moore, which was actuated purely from political motives, occurred yesterday afternoon during the meeting of the board of trustees of the state reform school. The dispute, or rather disagreement, arose over the election of a new superintendent of the reform school, which Governor Chamberlain, although powerless to avoid it, opposed strongly. The outcome, however, was the election of Hon. N. E. Looney of Jefferson, formerly state senator from Marion county, to succeed Superintendent H. E. Bickers, the present incumbent."

An understanding had been arrived at before hand, it is understood, between Secretary Dunbar and Treasurer Moore, and they both voted for Mr. Looney, and the only thing left for the governor to do was to protest, which he did most vigorously. Governor Chamberlain, after the board had adjourned, stated, as he did before the board, that he objected to the change because of the fact that Mr. Bickers was admitted to be a good man and has made a success of the institution.

He stated furthermore that he did not wish the impression to prevail that he had any personal objection to make against Mr. Looney, whom he classes as a friend and a competent man, but he did not think that an experienced man in an institution of that character should be supplanted by a man, no matter how capable he may be in other lines, who was inexperienced in that class of work. Then again, the governor continued, when Mr. Moore and Mr. Dunbar insisted upon removing Mr. Bickers, he was in favor of putting a good man, that is, one who had had practical experience in governing the class of youth that are committed to the reformatory, and he would have supported either Superintendent W. T. Gardner, of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, or Assistant Superintendent H. H. Hawley of the same institution.

In discussing the matter later Governor Chamberlain said that when he first succeeded to the office he stated and ever since has maintained that he was opposed to making a change in the administration of any state institution so long as the present incumbents were giving complete satisfaction and were in every way competent to fulfill their positions. He does not desire to infer that Mr. Looney is not qualified in every respect to fill the responsible position, but while they had a man at the head of the school whom they knew was competent, he did not believe in removing him."

Confessions of a Priest.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes, "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that held me in its grasp for 12 years." "EAST LYNNE" LAST NIGHT.

Well Presented and Deserves a Good Audience Tonight.

The old, but ever popular play, "East Lynne," was ably presented to an appreciative audience at the Frazer last night.

From the rising of the curtain the interest is maintained. Inez Forman as Lady Isabel, won the sympathy and admiration of the audience from her first appearance.

Love, trust, suspicion, jealousy, remorse and despair are realistically portrayed by Lady Isabel. At the death scene of her little boy, as well as in the last act where she pleads for her husband's forgiveness before she dies, her art is seen at its best.

Nellie Atherton as Barbara Hare, was easily the most unpopular person in the play, which is a sufficient tribute to the manner in which she handled her part.

C. S. Barkland as Archibald Carlyle, did good work, as did also J. Proyer Crossy, Jr., as Sir Francis Levison. That veteran of the boards, John Dillon, as John Dill, appeared to good advantage. Roena Madina as Cordelia, a domineering, overbearing, vinegary old maid with a tongue as bitter as wormwood, made an ideal "guardian angel of the household."

It was a very creditable performance and deserves a good house tonight.

Recovered Speech and Hearing.

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.
Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

BEARING DOWN PAINS

3847 Indiana Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 27, 1902.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

About eight months ago I had to take to my bed, suffering with prolapsus of the uterus, with bearing-down pains and intense pains in the back. My aunt, who came to nurse me told me of Wine of Cardui and sent for a bottle. I am indeed glad that she did, for that first bottle started me on the road to recovery. I was out of bed and in three months I was

ery. In a few weeks I was in better health and stronger than I had been in years. I take a dose now, occasionally, of Wine of Cardui and am kept in perfect health.

Mabel Cook
See'y. Woodman's Circle No. 70.

Wine of Cardui brings certain relief to women suffering any symptom of female weakness and perfectly regulates the menstrual flow. Wine of Cardui stops bearing-down pains by permanently relieving the irritation which weakens the ligaments holding the womb in place. You need not suffer every month if you take this medicine. The periodical discharge will be painless and healthy without continual weakening drains. Wine of Cardui will make your health right and you may treat yourself privately in your own home. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today.
