MARKETS HETAIL

Quotations on Staples Furnished by Local Merchants and Revised Daily.

The feature of the market today is the fine display of fall apples coming into town. Snow apples and an early picking of Blue Permain are the most prominent in the windows today They are going from 75 cents to $1 per box, and are in demand. Crabapples are out and plums are scarce. Dry onions are coming to town in greater quantities than usual. Egg plant is going out of season and the summer squash is a thing of the past. The matured vegetables of the autumn season are now in evidence everywhere and the fresh stuff of the hot house and warm climate is diminishing in quantity. A few fresh radishes are to be found, but they look sadly out of place among the dry onlons and the fall apples.
