TWO ARE MISSING

PORTLAND MAN'S WIFE LEADS FOR PENDLETON.

Birdie Lacey, Who Has Been Employed as a Domestic at The Dalles Has Also Disappeared—Police Search the Tenderloin District for Them, But They Cannot Be Found.

Marshal Scheer is in receipt of two letters of inquiry from relatives of missing women who, at the last known accounts of them, were headed for Pendleton from The Dalles. Both have absented themselves from home without the advice or consent of those most concerned about them, and both are supposed to have gone astray in the moral sense. In fact, both are alleged to have abandoned themselves to immorality by those who are searching and inquiring for them.

One C. R. Beasley, of 84 Front street, Portland, writes that his wife has left him, presumably in company with a man named Arnold, and that she is more than liable to be found in some sporting house. He describes her as being five feet three inches tall, dark complexion and dark hair, and gold-filled front teeth. She will weigh about 123 pounds.

A young man giving his name as Lacey and his residence as Vancouver, was in the city Saturday in search of his sister, a tall blonde aged 17, named Birdie Lacey. This sister has been for some time work- ing at The Dalles as a domestic and is supposed to have left there, as did Mrs. Beardsley, on or about the time Mrs. Beardsley did, and to have come to Pendleton also. He states that his sister left The Dalles in company with a woman of bad character.

In neither instance were the police able to give the inquirers any clue whatever. The tenderloin section was searched for both, but no one answering either description could be found, and no one would acknowledge that such parties have at any time been here.

ADVANCE CAUSED BY MORMONS

Kennear Nicely Says Real Estate is Higher Because of Their Invasion.

Kennear Nicely, of Union county, is here prospecting for farming land, and with the intention of returning to this county to reside. For many years he lived in the vicinity of Juniper, but removed 12 years ago to Union county. This climate agrees with him much better than east of the range, which is his primary object in returning. Mr. Nicely states that the rate of advance in the price of real estate in Union county is considerably greater than in Umatilla county. This may seem unprecedented when the known advantages of this climate are considered, and our greater proximity to market. The

WALLA WALLA SCORCHED.

Fire Which is Thought to Be Incendiary, Destroys Planing Mill Worth $40,000.

Walla Walla, Oct. 12.—(Special to the East Oregonian).—Fire, which is now known to have been incendiary, destroyed the immense planing mills and lumber yards belonging to the Whitehouse-Crimmins Lumber Company, in this city, Saturday night; loss about $42,000, partially insured.

The fire was discovered at 1:30, and started with a furious burst of flame, as if the entire surface of a huge pile of lumber had been saturated with coal oil. Before the local company could get a stream of water to playing on the flames, the entire plant was on fire, and the inefficiency of the fire company and equipment was pitifully evident.

The wind was blowing briskly and the $30,000 stock of lumber in the yard was quickly consumed. While the hose was playing on the burning lumber yard the buildings and offices of the company burst into flame and were consumed.

A row of residences on the opposite side of the street was seriously threatened for a time, as the burning fragments of shingles were flying through the air in every direction. The residents brought garden hose, buckets, wet blankets and water pitchers into requisition, and by heroic efforts prevented the flames from spreading across the street.

The plant and lumber yard was burned down by 4 o'clock and the fire company had the flames under control. The insurance covered about one-fourth the entire loss.

MRS. VINCENT IS DEAD.

She Dies at the Home of Her Daughter at Toledo, Ore.

Saturday morning last Mrs. J. T. Vincent, mother of Dr. F. W. Vincent, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Wade, at Toledo, Ore., aged 72 years, of paralysis, after an illness of two years, for one year of which time she has been unable to walk at all, or, in fact, stand without assistance. During the past two years she has been continually in charge of a trained nurse. Besides the doctor and the daughter mentioned, Mrs. Vincent leaves a son, F. A. Vincent, of Salt Lake City. The funeral and interment took place at Toledo yesterday. Mrs. Vincent was a native of the state of Maine, and came to Oregon, to Toledo and vicinity, in 1874. She was all her life an Episcopalian, and the funeral services were conducted according to the ritual of that faith.

FOUND A FORTUNE

W. P. TEMPLE WILL HAUL WATER NO MORE.

Struck an Inexhaustible Flow in a Well 75 Feet Deep on Despain Gulch Farm—Has Hauled Water 14 Years and Drilled 20 Wells, Spending in the Search for Water Over $5,000.

For 14 years W. P. Temple, who resides seven miles northwest of the city, in the Despain gulch district, has hauled water from the Umatilla river, a distance of seven miles, for household and stock purposes, in the dry season.

He had drilled 20 wells in that time, averaging from 40 to 200 feet in depth, and has spent $5,000 in hunting for a permanent water supply on his 2,000-acre wheat farm.

This week he struck a flow of water at a depth of 75 feet, which promises to be inexhaustible, and in this water supply has found a small fortune, for the expense and worry of hauling water on a large farm is something great.

Mr. Temple is elated with his fine, and well may be, for it adds much to the value of his property, and more to the convenience of his home. He will install a gasoline engine and pump, the first of the week to test the supply of water in his new well. At present, he cannot perceptibly lower the water, which is now eight feet deep, by pumping it out at the rate of eight gallons per minute.

The water is of the best quality, and from all appearances is endless in quantity. Other farmers in the same district who have hauled water from the river for years, will take hope from Mr. Temple's good fortune and a revival of well boring will be experienced in that vicinity. J. G. Richardson, of the Cold Springs district, has also found a good supply of water on his farm at a depth of 270 feet.

SEEDING 100 ACRES A DAY.

Work on the Temple Farm Progressing in a Satisfactory Manner.

W. P. Temple is now seeding 100 acres of fall wheat per day, and has 2,000 acres to seed on his Despain Gulch farm, seven miles northwest from the city.

The ground is in excellent condition for seeding and most of the farmers in that vicinity are now busy while the weather is favorable. In that district as in other portions of the county, the weed crop will be completely killed out by seeding the land.

FINDS MORE PROPERTY.

Baker County Has Increased in Valuation $350,000 Over Last Year.
