SCATTERED SCENERY.

A Too Soon Delivery for Warde and James This Afternoon.
 This afternoon as the transfer company was hauling the scenery for "Alexander the Great" from the depot to the theater, where it is to be used this evening, the big grey team belonging to John Van Orsdall took fright at the bouncing behind it and started to run.
 The team was quite a distance behind the first section of the scenery, and the horses tried to run on both sides of the wagon at the same time, when they overtook it. The tongue of the second wagon was run through the hindgate of the head one, and the first load was twisted out of shape and thrown on the wheels so that it could not be hauled until fixed. Neither the horses nor the load was injured to any extent.

Some days ago it was noted in the papers that a man had been found murdered in a box car loaded with lumber on the Northern Pacific. Today a carload of lumber was brought in over the W. & C. R. to Robert Forster, which had a lot of the lumber covered with blood and hair. It is thought that this is the car in which the murder occurred.

Want More Bonds.

The Spokane school board has delayed fixing the tax levy for this year to make an effort to bond the district for $200,000 more, instead of making such a high tax levy. Without the bond issue the tax will be 9½ mills; with this issue of bonds 7 mills will suffice for the expenses of the district.

Dr. C. C. Rosenberg, of Astoria, was fined $50 Monday for practicing without a license.

WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE

NO ROAD TO THUNDER.

Rich Mining District Sees the Close of the Year Without a Highway.

Along the blocked wagon road leading from Boise to Thunder Mountain lie about 100,000 pounds of mining machinery and material which had to be abandoned by wagons on account of the heavy snow.

Pack trains are now working patiently all along the snowy route, trying to get in enough machinery with which to start several new mills next spring.

It was earnestly hoped that a railroad from some point, Emmett, Boise, or other nearby point, would be built into the mines this year, but the winter season is closing down and the camp is isolated from the world, except for the narrow pack trails.

Scotland has an area of 19,062,000 acres, of which 4,894,466 acres are under cultivation; 112 persons own one half of the total area, and 18 persons own one fourth of it. One fourth of the tenants hold five acres or less, and nearly one third hold between five and 20 acres.

Fall Trade Good

It is good and that's a fact says Mr. Finerman to our reporter. How do you account for it, when others are complaining about the fall trade I asked him. Why, I do not know any other good reason than that the people have found out that we are actually selling better shoes for the money or the same quality for less money than others do. It is really remarkable how many people there are who remark about the "wearing quality" of our shoes. Now that is what we pay for and you get when you buy Douglas or Gloria or Red Schoolhouse Shoes. These shoes are sold at a price and no one attempts to undersell them—they simply can't and live. We have found the least margin of resistance to trade and that accounts for our increase this fall. Now watch us sell shoes. We carry shoes on five widths in all foot form lasts—in all leathers, heights, styles, sizes, weights, etc. "Say, don't that boy talk some?" I thought as I went on my way with a fine pair of the Douglas shoes on from the

LANDS WITHDRAWN.

About One and a Half Million Acres Withheld From Settlement.
 Nearly one-half of Cascade county, Montana, has been withheld from settlement on account of the many desert land locations being made upon the tracts included.
 Embraced in the withdrawal is nearly all the land in this county that lies south and east of the Missouri. It is estimated that the order of withdrawal affects about 1,150,000 acres, and that within that area there have been filings under the desert land law upon about 200,000 acres. The area embraced within the suspended entries is probably 40,000 acres.
