HE SCORES SOCIETY

BOURKE COCKRAN PREFERS POLYGAMY TO DIVORCE.

Says the Great Fortune is Necessary to the March of Civilization—Thinks the One Foul Blot Upon the Banner of American Civilization is the Divorce Record.

In an address before the Knights of Columbus, gathered in Carnegie hall to celebrate the anniversary of America's discovery, W. Bourke Cockran reviewed the march of civilization and declared that the only blot to be seen at the present day is the divorce practice. The great private fortunes he considered to be of value to the nation, while the labor problem, he said, is only a step in the march of progress.

Progress the Law of the Universe. "There has been growth," he said, "since the beginning of the world. Progress is the law of the universe, and the nations who came before this one, the men who have lived and accomplished things before Columbus were simply links in a chain which has not yet been completed. When we know that this work is all for mankind, then we can understand that this mission is of commerce and religion and that this mission marked the dawn of justice.

"The present condition of society here is full of promise. We have the great fortunes of the earth—greater than Rome even dared dream of—and, though philosophers say that where wealth accumulates men decay, I see no cause for despair. When a large fortune is not gained by robbery, by fraud or by manipulation of the laws, then it can be but a boon to the nation. My neighbor's prosperity increases my own and that of the earth.

"Nor do modern fortunes tend to the increase of luxury. On the contrary, men become more self-denying. I see no sign of decay in the human race here. The labor question is in process of solution and every row is a step toward this.

"A laborer cannot get more pay than the value of his product, for then the product ceases to be made. Nor can he get much less, because of the element of competition. The laborer of today is not a servant, but a partner of his employer, and their good rests in a mutual understanding.

A Blot Upon Civilization.

"But the blot I see upon our civilization is the increasing number of divorces. In the ancient state the supreme importance of life was to increase the importance of the state. Today the end of life is the individual good. But the individual good lies in the prosperity of the family, and it is at this that the divorce strikes. If not checked it will destroy the family.

"The remedy to this, as I see it, is to realize that matrimony is a state not a contract, and divorce must be stopped. Divorce strikes at the virtue of our women, and this virtue is what preserves the state. Divorce is the one foul growth upon our soil, and upon its riddance depends the fate of our future.

"If we are to choose between divorce and polygamy, give us polygamy."

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had Consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1 bottles guaranteed by Tallman & Co. RAPIST GETS SEVEN YEARS.

William Jarbo, of Elgin, Sentenced Yesterday Evening.

Union, Oct. 15.—(Special to the East Oregonian.)—William Jarbo, aged 62 years, who pleaded guilty Tuesday morning to the crime of rape on the person of Elsie Ezell, a 13-year-old girl of Elgin, was yesterday evening sentenced by Judge Eakin to seven years in the penitentiary.

The scene in the court room was one of the most striking ever witnessed in Union county. Jarbo is white-haired and feeble with age, and when asked by the court if he had anything to say, answered by his attorney, Major F. S. Ivanho, who made a strong plea for clemency on the

FIFTY CENTS A MONTH

A small bottle of Scott's Emulsion costing fifty cents will last a baby a month—a few drops in its bottle each time it is fed. That's a small outlay for so large a return of health and comfort.

Babies that are given Scott's Emulsion quickly respond to its helpful action. It seems to contain just the elements of nourishment a baby needs most.

Ordinary food frequently lacks this nourishment; Scott's Emulsion always supplies it.

grounds of the age of the guilty man, and his previous good character. After the plea by his attorney, Jarbo was ordered to stand up, when he tottered down his seat with tears streaming down his cheeks, when the judge, himself visibly affected pronounced sentence.

Jarbo was formerly an engineer on the O. R. & N. at La Grande, and has grown children. His conduct has always been good before this, and his friends were shocked at his heinous crime.

IDAHO SHEEPMAN COMPLAINS.

Reports Many Quitting the Business on Account of Heavy Expenses.

Idaho sheep were placed on sale today to C. E. Elison, a ranchman shipping from Oakley, says the Omaha Journal-Stockman.

In speaking of the sheep industry Mr. Elison says that the heavy expenses attached to it are driving many out of the business. A good many of the ranchmen have shipped out closer than usual this year, some of them sending in most everything they had. Mr. Elison says railroad rates have increased, labor is scarce and high and even food stuffs have taken a jump. He says everything is high that they deal in except what they have to sell, and it is hard to do business under these conditions.

Thinks Trib a Good Remedy.

B. F. Gray, Portland, Oregon, July 10th, 1902, writes "I believe your remedy for the liquor and tobacco habit, 'Trib' a good one. I took the Keeley cure and it cost me $150. I think Trib is honestly the best cure of the two. If I ever can be of any assistance to you, let me know. I consider you have done much for me."
