AS TO CITY POLITICS

THE FIELD IN GENERAL AND SEPARATE WARDS.

One Candidate Only for Mayor and One for City Treasurer—Nothing Definite in Relation to Water Commissioner—Not More Than Two Candidates in Any Ward for Councilman.

Things in the city political world are beginning to straighten out, so that the head of the animal can be told from the tail, but that is about all.

As to the Mayoralty. W. F. Matlock, the only candidate for mayor, as Dr. Vincent has declined to make the race, and Mayor Halley is not a candidate for re-election.

Charles Hamilton will enter the race for re-election as city treasurer, and as he is the only one that has signified any intention of getting into the harness, it looks as though there is not much doubt but that he will succeed himself.

The vacant place on the water commission is in doubt. W. H. Jones, whose term of office expires at this time, has not made up his mind whether or not he will be in the race again.

In the council, things are a little different. In the first ward Frank B. Clifton will not be a candidate for re-election.

He thinks that he has had enough of the honor and will retire in favor of some other man. Then he is on the water commission and this with the completion of the sewer system, will entitle him to a rest from the cares of the management of the affairs of the city.

A petition is out in behalf of J. M. Ferguson, who has signified that he will accept the nomination for the place. Mr. Ferguson will enter the race as a citizen, and will point to his record as a man who has always stood for the best interests of the city, in asking for the support of his friends.

In the second ward G. A. Hartman will lay down the robes of office, and it is said that he has no desire to resume them for another term. He too, has served the city long and faithfully, and is willing for another and a younger man to have a whack at it for a time.

In the Third Ward. Ed Switzer, of the third ward, will not be a candidate for another term, and B. F. Renn will ask the people of that part of the city for the privilege of representing them in the city legislative body for the next term.

In the Fourth Ward. The fourth ward has no desire to change. There are two men from this section in the city council, and the places are now filled by W. J. Sewell and Theodore Howard.

Looking at the slate as it is now written upon, it seems to be a one-sided race from the flag, but more candidates may appear on the scene at any time to make the election an interesting and exciting one.

After the business meeting of the lodge was over, the ladies spread before their thankful hosts a very delicious repast which they had brought with them, following which a pleasant evening was spent by all. About 65 people were present at the gathering.

O. R. & N. WINS SUIT

MANCHESTER ASSURANCE CO. LOSES DAMAGE CASE.

Turning Point Was the Liability of Brick-Arched Fire Boxes to Eject Inflammable Cinders — Personal Damage Case Is Being Tried This Afternoon.

The jury in the case of the Manchester Assurance Company vs. the O. R. & N. yesterday afternoon, brought in a verdict for the defendant, after about half an hour deliberation.

This is the first case of the session that has been found in favor of the O. R. & N., and it was practically the same proposition as the cases already tried. The case was won largely by the testimony of Mr. Mattilson, the Northern Pacific expert, who was here for several days before the court as a witness in behalf of the company.

The turning point of the case came when the presence and effect of the brick arch in the fire boxes of the big locomotives was introduced in the testimony. This proved that the cinders were burned to such an extent that they would not set fire to anything under ordinary circumstances, and the jury found accordingly.

The Adcock Case.

The case of Elizabeth Adcock vs. the O. R. & N. went to the jury this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This is a personal damage case against the company. At the conclusion of the argument in this case the court adjourned for the day.

FAKIRS ARE PLENTIFUL.

Walla Walla Fair Well Supplied With Busy Grafters.

A street has been laid out east of the grand stand for the various side shows and fakirs who go to make up the county fair, says the Walla Walla Union. There is a good-sized bunch of them, too. They are as noisy as usual and have about every imaginable kind of attraction. Tents and stands have been erected and the money has already begun to come in to the ticket takers.

The side show privileges will net the association a neat sum of money and will go a long way toward defraying the expenses of the fair this year. It has been necessary for the association to make charges for everything in order to come out even on the events this year. Everything at the present time looks most favorable for the week. The side shows themselves serve to attract people when the races are not in progress.

FOUNDATION FINISHED.

Work on Superstructure Will Begin in a Short Time.

The workmen have finished the foundation on the Schwartz-Greulich Meat Company's new cold storage plant on Webb street, and it is now ready for the commencement of the upper works. This will be begun at once, and the building will be finished as fast as the men can do the work.

New Equipment Ordered.

In the last three years the Southern Pacific company has bought more than 15,000 new freight cars and 337 new locomotives of the most powerful and approved type have not only been ordered, but most of them have been delivered and put into service. Forty-one thousand carloads of California products were carried over the Southern Pacific lines to Eastern points during the fiscal year ending June 30, an increase of 4,000 carloads over the preceding year. Shipments within the state also showed a large increase.

Oregonians at St. Louis.

Jefferson Myers and W. H. Wehrung have arrived in St. Louis and are inspecting the grounds and enjoying the persimmon crop and frazzle end of paw-paw harvest before signing up the contracts for the Oregon space at the exposition.

Dowie Had a Frost.

The great campaign of Dowie to the slums and social hells of New York ended in a frost. His ranting has brought out no large audience yet, and people disrespect him so deeply that they walk out of his meetings by the dozens.

Aberdeen Fire Loss.

The total loss by the Aberdeen fire last Friday was $528,000. The city will be rebuilt better than ever. Brick blocks will replace many of the fire-traps that graced the streets.
