Gambler's term as mayor would expire soon and that probably the next occupant of that office would be more merciful. But Mr. Halley has declared that he will continue to enforce the law as district attorney and as a private citizen and the following statement from him is his ultimatum.

TWELVE ARRESTS FOR GAMBLING

Nearly All the Defendants Are Well-Known Residents of Pendleton.

THE REAL NAMES OF TWO ARE NOT KNOWN.

Some Are Now Absent, But it is Believed All Will Be on Hand Tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. for Arraignment—All Expected to Plead Guilty and Pay Their Fines.

There was a goodly crowd in the court room this afternoon to see the arraignment of the gamblers against whom affidavits had been filed by the district attorney.

Informations have been filed against Jim Spence, Frank O'Hara, William Krebs, Tom Johnson, William George, Ed Switzler, Charles Cook, Mike Gratz, Jr., Frank Rainwater, Fred Drake and a couple of John Doe informants in which the identity of the men is known, but their names are not.

The last two men in the list were put under bonds yesterday evening and this afternoon the first five on the list were in the court room to plead. The others, however, were absent for various reasons, and the arraignment was postponed in order to get them all in the court at once and have the matter over with.

It is understood that none of the men will fight the allegation, and all will pay their fines. The court stated that it would be understood that the bonds in each case were fixed at $150 and that the men would all be held in that sum for their appearance.

Warrants have been served on all of the men and they have furnished bonds for their appearance tomorrow afternoon when they will appear in the court and plead as to their guilt.

COUNTY SEAT FIGHT AGAIN.

Union County Ordeal is Not Yet Over and Case May Be Re-Hard in Supreme Court.

La Grande, Oct. 23.—(Special to the East Oregonian.)—The attorneys for La Grande in the county seat removal case, today filed petitions in the supreme court for a rehearing, in the case just decided, in which the enabling act was declared unconstitutional.

In case a rehearing is ordered the election will go on just as if the case has not been decided. The attorneys in the case hope to secure a rehearing, as there are several technical points which were overlooked in the matter, which it is thought will throw the weight of testimony and chance in favor of the law.

The election notices are all posted, and if the case should be reversed, in a rehearing, the vote will be taken on November 2, according to the orders of the law, permitting the vote on the removal.

COLORADO COURT-MARTIAL.

General Bell is Suffering From Severe Case of Swelled Head.

Denver, Oct. 23.—The court-martial of General Chase nearly broke up in a row at noon, when General Bell refused to be cross-examined and in a loud voice ordered the court to adjourn. The latter ignored him and went into executive session. Bell is being denounced as having peculiar ideas as to the relative importance of himself, the court and governor.

WILL FIGHT GAMBLING AFTER TERM ENDS

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

Auxiliary of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 23.—One of the largest missionary conventions ever held in this section will be the annual meeting of the managers of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, which will be held in Chattanooga beginning next Wednesday, and continuing six days.

The program is not yet completed in all its details, but the plans have advanced far enough to show that the gathering will be one of extraordinary interest. Among the many noted women who will speak are Mrs. Clinton B. Fiske, of New York, Mrs. Jane Bancroft Robinson of Detroit, Mrs. W. C. Herron of Cincinnati, Mrs. Joseph F. Berry of Chicago, Mrs. Joseph Spencer of Kansas City, and Mrs. Levi Gilbert of Cincinnati.

ONE NOTORIOUS THIEF IS CAUGHT

BILL CARVER, WANTED IN THREE STATES, CAPTURED.

Has Been the Worst All-Round Thief and Rustler in Eastern Oregon, Idaho and Washington for Years—Some of His Crimes Are Well Remembered.

Spokane, Oct. 23.—(Special to the East Oregonian.)—"Bill Wild," or William Carver, wanted in Idaho, Oregon and Washington for cattle rustling and horse stealing, was arrested yesterday evening at Sand Point, Idaho, by Sheriff Whitney of Kootenai county.

Carver has a criminal record which extends over three states and will be tried in Kootenai county for stealing horses. He is wanted at Spokane for horse stealing and in Baker county, Oregon, for the same crime, he having headed a gang of thieves with headquarters on Snake river near Pine and Eagle valleys in that county. He is also wanted in the Okanogan country for cattle rustling.

When he left Eagle valley, Oregon, last spring, seven head of good horses disappeared, and if he had been caught just then a lynching, including other known members of his gang, would have followed.

Carver, while in Baker county, was a member and leader of one of the worst gangs of thieves that ever infested Eastern Oregon. Included in this gang were young men belonging to some of the best pioneer families in the country. One of the well remembered raids made upon this organized gang, was when the Indian police of the Umatilla reservation arrested the Turner, Prescott and Fisher boys, near Thorn Hollow, 20 miles east of Pendleton, in 1894, in charge of 80 head of stolen cattle belonging in Union county. The entire party was sent up for terms ranging from one to three years.

A crime attributed to Carver's gang was the murder of John Lawrence, near Tolocaset, in the summer of 1892. Lawrence was shot from his horse while riding on the range, and his murderer was never discovered. Lawrence was a detective and a well respected young man of Union.

SCHOOL RECORD TO BE PROUD OF

Ninety-six Pupils Are Attending Highest Grade, Which Enrollment is the LARGEST IN HISTORY OF PENDLETON HIGH SCHOOL.

Increasing Interest in Manual Training and Laboratory Work—The General Library is to Receive Many and Valuable Additions—High School Entertainment October 30.

The high school has reached the top notch in history as regards attendance, for it now has more pupils enrolled than at any other time in its history. When the last school year ended, the teachers placed the limit for this year at 100 pupils, and already there are 96 enrolled in regular standing, with more than enough to pass the 100 mark in sight. All of the studies are now well under way and the students have settled down to the work of the year in good shape.

The New Departments.

The new departments of manual training, and the laboratory are both in condition for the work of the term, and the boys and girls are taking great interest in this part of their studies. From the indications these will be the two favorite departments from the students' standpoint before the year is out.

To Increase the Library.

Professor Conklin has as yet received no list of books from the state department, and in the absence of Professor Nowlin, is tied up in the matter of the selection of the library allowed him by the distribution of the state and county school fund. This fund in the case of Pendleton schools amounts to $150 and to this will be added $75 given by the school board, making a total of $225 for the district. With this money Professor Conklin will purchase books for the school library as soon as he gets the list from which to select. The department of education has compiled a list of books from which the districts of the state are to select their libraries, and it is owing to the fact that this list has not reached the Pendleton office, that the library for this district has not been ordered.

Now 1,200 Volumes.

The school library now comprises about 1,200 volumes, varying in interest from the juvenile to the higher grades. The high school department of the library is the smallest, but it is a good foundation for the future, and is composed of text and reference books and encyclopedias. But the greater bulk of the library is for the lower grades, and is composed of works suitable to the younger minds.

Plan of Selection.

It is the intention of those in charge of the selection of the library to make the present purchase for the benefit of the intermediate grades, working thus from the lower to the higher grade of books. By this system in the selection of the library it will not be long until the books will have a wider range of interest and all of the pupils in the schools will be able to find interest in the work there. It is hoped that the selection of the books can be made in a few days, so that they will soon be here for the use of the pupils.

High School Entertainment.

The entertainment which is being worked up by the members of the high school will be given one week from this evening, in the Assembly hall. Owing to the pressure of work in the school it was found to be inconvenient to give the program this evening and do it justice, so it was postponed in order to give more time in its preparation.

FALSE ALARM.

Tale of Burglars Resolved into a Scent of Hoboes.

It was reported to the police last night about 10 o'clock that two men were attempting to enter the house of W. J. Furnish, and officers went to the place to investigate. It is thought, however, that the men were a couple of drunks who had gotten into the yard, and who had no intentions of robbery. They were seen to be in the yard, but did not attempt to enter the house, and had vanished before the police reached the scene of action.

Work Begun on Residence.

Work on the elegant new residence of L. O. Sheek, to be built on South Thompson street, was begun this morning. The site for this residence overlooks the entire city, and is one of the most attractive locations for a good home in Pendleton.
