Funny Folks.

"Funny Folks" is billed to appear at the Park theater and if they are as funny as their well chosen title there will be a jolly time ahead for the theater-goer. A traveling man said that Bronson and Chenoweth's "Funny Folks" is the best organization of its kind on the road. The sole purpose of the aggregation is to create laughter and the firms card sets forth the fact that they are wholesale dealers in joy. Funny Folks offer a splendid program and one that looks mighty good to us. They will be here all next week.

Handkerchief Sale On.

The St. Joe Store has just received one of the largest shipments of handkerchiefs ever brought to Pendleton, and has inaugurated a special handkerchief sale. An attractive window display of the new goods has been made where the styles can be studied. See the large advertisement in this issue for further particulars regarding the sale.

THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE

OWL TEA HOUSE GROWING.

Shelving Capacity of the Store to Be Greatly Enlarged.

The Owl Tea House is undergoing some extensive improvements internally, which when completed will greatly increase the shelving capacity and afford a better opportunity for displaying of goods.

The tea store will carry a larger stock of glassware, chinaware, crockery, etc., than ever before and when the improvements are finished will be better prepared to wait upon the trade.

The change consists in the erecting of a large balcony in the rear of the room which will be shelved for new goods and will also be used for an office. New counters and shelves have also been erected on the main floor and the general appearance of the place improved.

General Foreman.

W. A. Storie, the general foreman of the bridge building department of the O. R. & N., left this morning for Wallace on a trip having to do with the business of the department in that city.
