IMITATES THE AMERICAN.

Japanese Foreman From the Sumpter Valley Railway Absconds and Blows in Comrades' Money.

La Grande, Oct. 28.—(Special to the East Oregonian.)—Anata, Tonaka, a Japanese "book man," or foreman of a gang of section hands on the Sumpter Valley railway, absconded yesterday from Baker City, with $1,100 belonging to the crew under his charge.

He arrived in this city last evening, proceeded to get drunk, spend the money freely, and gamble to the tune of $100 a bet. The Baker City sheriff wired here to have him arrested, and when taken into custody this morning he had only about $80 of the $1,100 on his person, having spent the remainder last night. He took 10 of his Japanese friends to a swell supper, costing about $4 a plate, at 3 o'clock this morning.

Fired the Whole Gang.

This afternoon James Welch, the man in charge of the excavation for the Martin building, became incensed at the action of the teamsters employed by him and fired the whole outfit. It looked for a time as though there would be a free-for-all fight, but no one wanted to begin the mixup, and the matter ended in a great deal of loud talk and cussing.

Milk Prices Raised.

The dairies of Portland have made a 13-13 per cent raise in the price of milk, to take effect November 1. At present milk is selling at $2 per quart per month and the price after November 1 will be $2.25 per quart. The price of two quarts per month will be raised from $3.50 to $4. Milkmen say the high prices of feed are responsible for the advance.
