For instance the rate from Johnstown, Pa., where the Pennsylvania railroad is the principal owner of the Cambria Steel Company's plant, to New York is 26 cents lower than from Boffalo. Pittsburg and Buffalo have the same basis. The Pennslyvania, it is expected, will make a strong fight for its own interests, as against Buffalo, and this will have a tendency to aggravate the Trunk lines as well to aggravate the Trunk lines as well as those from Pittsburg.

BOATS FOR SNAKE RIVER.

To Ply Between Glenn's Ferry and Bruneau.

Bolse City, Oct. 29,-E. W. John son and J. E. Lane will leave this morning for Portland where they will look into the matter of getting a boat to ply on the Snake river between Glenn's Ferry and Bruneau.

The boat project is connected with the irrigation enterprise they have in hand for the Bruneau section. It is planned to carry all freight for that section down the river.

The landing will be at the present crossing for the Bruneau country, and only a few miles from the lands which it is proposed to reclaim. It is anticipated that the boat will find enough business to keep it busy from the start, as the freight in and out of that section is already heavy. The distance from Glenn's Ferry to the landing will be some 23 miles.

Her Life.

Mrs. Emma Moss Booth Tucker was born in England in 1860. She is the second daughter of the fa-mons general. She married Tucker in 1888. She had charge of the international training homes in Lon-don for eight years, with her hus-band. She had charge of the army in India

She came to New York, where she maintained a home, in 1896. She was a sister of Ballington Booth, who formerly commanded the army in America, new commander of the volunteers in America. She was well educated and has been classed as one of the six greatest orators in America.

Brother Prestrated.

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—Colonel Bal-lington Booth is here in attendance at the annual field conference of the Volunteers of America. He was al-most prostrated when told by a re-porter of his sister's death. The general council of volunteers offered condolence and also sent a telegram of sympathy to Booth Tucker, at Chicago. Ballington Booth and wife go to Chicago tonight.

General Is Dazed.

London, Oct. 29.—The news of Mrs. Booth Tucker's death was broken to the aged general today by his son. Bramwell. He acts dazed. He said: "The loss approaches a magnitude of disaster to the army. It is an irretrievable blow to the American forces. The news comes to us with staggering force, but we bow to the inscrutable will of God."

Orders have been issued to hold memorial services throughout the world. The death may result in a change of the command of the American branch.

FOR SMALLER SHEEP HERDS

Day of the Big Flocks Has Gone by and Breeds Must Be Bettered.

MPOSSIBLE TO GET SUFFICIENT RANGE.

Influx of Immigration Into State Is Affecting the Pasture Fields and Country is Rapidly Being Settled-Water Extremely Scarce Throughout the Country - Streams Lower Than for Years.

Charles Cunningham is in the midst of his sheep campaign for this season. The breeding time is now here and already thus far Mr. Cunningham has sold over 2,000 head of his thoroughbred bucks to the growers of the country, 1,100 of which bave gone to Umatilia county sheepmen.

The sheepmen of the country are

The sheepmen of the country are having a hard time to get water for their flocks. Water is scarceer at this time than it has ever been and the wells and streams are lower. What is the matter is not known, but it is laid to the fact that it has been so long since there was any rain in any quantity.

The pasture on the other hand is good, but badly in need of rain to make it last. As the ground is becoming dryer the growth is checked and unless there is a good rain in a short time the sheep will get ahead of the pasture. But while the pasture is good it is not enough for the number of sheep in the county. The county is overstocked and the men will have to feed earlier than they usually do, owing to the fact the number of sneep.

One of the things that the sheepone of the things that the sheep-men of the county should learn, and that at his earliest opportunity, is that the days of the big flocks are past and the sheepraiser of the fu-ture will have to raise his standard and cut the numbers of his holdings. There is not room in the county

There is not room in the county for the sheep that are now in it and certainly the conditions will not al-low of the vast increase bound to come in the natural course of breeding. So the only practical remedy that will work to the benefit of the small, will so cut up the range that the summering of large bands will be out of the question and the same condition will apply to the winter range.

But few men in the country can afford to hold many thousands of acres changing the grades as fast as they can get rid of the old range stock that has overrun the country in the past, Each progressive man is putting new blood into his flocks and in a
