GENERAL NEWS.

A railroad 170 miles long, will be built from Mazatlan, Mexico, into the interior. It will cost $17,000,000, and is one of the most important railroad undertakings Mexico has ever seen.

Over $15,500,000 were diverted last week from the government treasury and sub-treasuries to Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans to float weak-kneed private banks and state banks.

As an elevator in a New York business house was nearing the bottom of the shaft, Peter McIntyre, who was standing below waiting for it, had a sudden fit and fell into the shaft just in time to be crushed by the descending cage.

The movement to advance the price of anthracite has been found to have originated suspiciously close to the Carnegie headquarters at Homestead. Some means must be found of making a closer corporation between the Lord and the library extension movement.

A man named Sheffield, a native of Long Island, and a scene painter by trade, is, according to the New York World, effecting very remarkable cures of disease by laying on of hands. He is a diffident, unobtrusive man and refuses to be paid for his services.

Algernon Sartoris, grandson of U. S. Grant, and descendant of English aristocracy, is out with the emphatic declaration that Canada by right ought to be, must be and shall be, annexed to the United States. Algernon's brains and tact are not nearly as long nor noticeable as his pedigree.

NORTHWEST NEWS.

George Wier, traveling auditor for the Northern Pacific, died at Tacoma Sunday aged 50 years. He was subject to heart trouble.

The 4-year-old daughter of Charles Rockstroth, of Hillsboro, was burned to death Sunday morning by her clothing catching fire from a bonfire.

Mayor Humes, of Seattle, refuses to make any effort to get his sons out of jail, but will let the law take its course. They assaulted an officer Saturday.

Advices from Washington, D. C., say that there is little doubt about the conviction of T. A. Wood, now under indictment for pension frauds in Portland.

Leslie L. Potts, a woolen mill employe at Oregon City, had his left arm torn off Saturday evening by being caught in a wheel turning 800 revolutions per minute.

The Gold Coin cyanide plant at Black Lakes, Idaho, 100 miles north of Weiser, was destroyed by fire Saturday. Loss about $120,000; insured for $20,000. The plant employed 75 men.

The aurora borealis, or northern light which was witnessed in different parts of the Northwest Saturday, almost entirely suspended all telegraphic communication at Salt Lake City, on account of its interference with the wires.

John Shaski, a Great Northern fireman, lost his balance and fell from a locomotive near Lamona, Wash., Sunday morning, while the train was moving 40 miles an hour. He was horribly mangled by the fall and cannot live.

J. D. French of Lena was a visitor in this vicinity Wednesday. He was on his way to Pendleton in search of a market for his beef, consisting of about 200 head, of which 150 were steers. He says J. Bransman of his neighborhood has 150 head of beef. Mr. French talks some of shipping, if he cannot get a suitable market at home.

There are about 350 head of good beef in this and Gurdane locality owned by Jas. L. Hall, B. F. Ogle, J. A. Owings and sons, Rust Bros., W. E. Baker, Fletcher Bros and others.

M. E. Fletcher has been on the sick list, but is about well again. Ray Hinkle had the misfortune to fall from his horse a few days ago and as a result has a very badly sprained wrist, which he carries in a sling.

Jas Nelson of Pendleton is arranging to place a telephone line between his big cattle ranch on Butter creek and the office at Oscar Owings', on the main line. C. B. Hinkle and sons are getting out the posts.

The Gullford Bros. of Butter creek are busy dipping sheep this week. A. E. Rust, of Pendleton, is out again in our rich mountain air for his health which is greatly improving.

Disastrous Wrecks.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of the many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery.
