GENUINE CLOSING OUT SALE.

"And You'll Have to Hurry," or Wait for Your Turn.

The closing out sale of the big dry goods stock at the Boston store is the magnet that is drawing the vast crowd of eager purchasers. Ever since the doors were opened Thursday morning there has been a continuous flow of people loaded with bundles and wearing pleasant expressions because of the remarkably low prices they paid for the up-to-date goods.
The people who have been at the store since the sale started are convinced of the genuineness of the sale by the extremely low prices being offered, for they reason that no person who had the slightest idea of remaining in business would slaughter the prices as they are cut at this sale.
The great closing out sale will continue until every article in the dry goods department has been disposed of. Those who were fortunate enough to wait to buy their cloaks and jackets are very thankful as the saving they are making makes their money go so much farther that they have reason to be happy.
The proprietor of the Boston store is using every means possible to give callers prompt attention and asks those who have to wait to have patience and feels confident they will be highly pleased when they figure how much they have saved by buying at the closing out sale.

Federation Board Meeting.

It has been definitely decided that a board meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Pendleton next week. Mrs. T. T. Geer, the state president, will be here to attend the irrigation convention. In view of the fact that a number of the state officers will be here, the Women's Club will have a special meeting on Wednesday afternoon, November 11, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. B. Wade. Necessary business will be dispatched early, and it will be "Federation Day" at the club. Every club woman in the city is cordially invited to attend this meeting and make the acquaintance of the new state officers.

Committee Chairmen.

The list of irrigation reception committees published in the Saturday East Oregonian was incomplete. Following are the names of chairmen of music and reception committees: Music, Mrs. J. Ross Dickson; reception, Mrs. C. J. Smith.
ADELIA D. WADE,
Sec'y Executive Committee.

The successful numbers of the drawing just past will be announced in the daily and weekly papers. Be sure and compare the numbers on your tickets. We're never idle. We're always on the alert, and you'll find, like all our patrons, that it pays to trade at THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

7th Prize, Goat, Wagon and Harness
This is one of the most novel gifts imaginable. We were obliged to send some distance for the goat, but the pleasure derived by the one who wins it will certainly repay us for our efforts. The little wagon is a Studebaker and taken in all there won't be a finer Christmas present anywhere. You will see the rig complete at the store. When we give anything, bear in mind that it is the best. The value of this gift is $35.00.

We have gotten only the best in the prizes offered, and we have taken pains to get something for the man, something for the women and children and something for young men and boys. We have done the best in our history this fall and we trust you are one of the satisfied customers of THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE
