

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SAVED THE NATIVES
AMERICAN SAILOR TELLS THRILLING STORY OF NORTH.
Tribe of Alaskan Indians Saved from Starvation by the Daring of a "Jackie"—Fierce Shark had Cut off Their Food Supply.
 Seattle, Oct. 30.—The United States survey steamer Patterson, which arrived last night from Dutch Harbor brought from Bering Sea a story so strange as to be almost unbelievable.
 Alexander Henderson, an American trader in the Aleutian islands is the only authority for the story, but at Dutch Harbor, where he is well known, his statements are given credence. According to Henderson he was the means, during the present summer, of saving from starvation the entire population of one of the small islands of the Aleutian archipelago. This he did by killing a great man-eating shark which had cut off almost the entire food supply of the native inhabitants of the island.
 The sealing schooner Isabel, with Henderson and his sloop aboard arrived at Dutch Harbor a few days prior to the departure of the Patterson, Oct. 10. He was picked up by the schooner a month after he had his remarkable adventure, and having completed his summer's work, he went on the vessel to Dutch Harbor, where he spends his winters.
 During the course of his cruise of the Bering sea islands, Henderson, in the latter part of July, arrived in his little sloop at Kanaga island, a diminutive member of the Andreanoff group of the Aleutian archipelago. On landing he found the 200 native inhabitants to be in a pitiable condition, being short of food and ready to migrate to some of the islands eastward. During the ten days that had just passed, the natives had been unable to fish, which was the only means by which they could secure the salmon and cod, practically their only article of diet.
 A huge shark, which they called the "devil-shark," had three times tipped over canoes which had attempted to fish, and each time one of the occupants had disappeared into the man-eater's white "tummy." When Henderson arrived the poor natives were completely terrorized, their only alternative being to remain on the island and starve, or to migrate. Henderson gave them hope by telling them that he would kill the monster with his Winchester.
 Taking a crew of natives picked from volunteers, he went out in a canoe and waited for the appearance of the shark. The latter appeared in half an hour. When a distance of 200 yards from the canoe, Henderson aimed at his head and fired twice. The big brute floundered in the water with a splash that nearly swamped the canoe, but two more shots dispatched him.
 Henderson became a hero after thus coming to the aid of the natives. Incidentally he reaped a small fortune in pelts and furs, as the Aleuts refused to take return payment for the goods which he sought to secure.

A CLEVER COMPANY.

Will Present "A Bachelor's Honeymoon" and "The Resurrection."
 The Clement-Keefer Company, under the able management of C. B. Clement, put on two very pleasant entertainments in the opera house Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and many of the older residents of the city speak of it as being the best company seen in this city for years. The play entitled "A Bachelor's Honeymoon" was a successful hit, and Clayton E. Lloyd in the presentation of Benjamin Batchelor, kept the house in an uproar during the entire engagement. Mr. Lloyd is certainly a good impersonator and his appearance on the stage here was a great feature. It is a clever company, to say the least, and it is hoped that they may appear here again in the near future.
 Boyd Cobb, the Dutch character, and Miss Alice Hoxsey, who presented the part of Mrs. Batchelor, were also interesting characters and the presentation of their parts was pleasing to all who attended.
 This clever company will be seen at the Frazer theater November 4, for two nights. For their engagement here they will present Hoyt's "A Bachelor's Honeymoon" on Wednesday night, and "The Resurrection" on Thursday night. Popular prices will prevail during the engagement.

A Remarkable Case.

One of the most remarkable cases of cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining weakened me so that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedie cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Tallman & Co.
