NO SCHOOL REMAINDER OF THE WEEK AT ATHENA

Miss Glass of Goldendale Will Attend School Here—Visitors From La Grande, North Yakima and Other Points—Being Treated Here for Cancer—Mrs. Pinkerton is Recovering.

Athena, Nov. 5.—Frank Tharp and William Hardin, who have been suffering from rheumatism, went to the Hot lake Wednesday to get relief.

Mrs. Wilkinson's niece, Miss Hazel Glass, from Goldendale, Wash., will spend the winter with Mrs. Wilkinson and attend the public school here.

Miss Kitty Sharp of this city, who has been teaching school near Pendleton, is home visiting her parents.

Mrs. Eva Boddy and daughter, Mrs. Carry Gillis, spent a day or more at their mountain home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Marsh and daughter and son returned home a few days ago from an extended visit with Mrs. Marsh's parents in the Orchard valley.

Miss Nellie Tittsworth, who has spent the summer at Helix, spent Sunday in this city, visiting her parents.

Mrs. A. M. Gillis' uncle, Henry Lewis of La Grande, spent last week at the Gillis home.

F. M. Naylor's eldest daughter, Lena, who spent the summer at North Yakima, spent a few days at her home and visiting friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John King and family are visiting friends in Walla Walla.

Mr. Sparrow of La Grande spent Sunday with his wife and little son. Mrs. Sparrow is teaching school here.

Mrs. S. C. Kilgore and Miss Susie Ogle one day last week hitched up a somewhat fractious horse for a drive. The horse became frightened and broke the shafts and a new set of harness in pieces.

The Epworth league gave an entertainment and supper at the opera house Saturday night.

William Kilgore of this city and his sister, Mrs. Sarah McDougal, of Weston, were called to Pendleton to attend a law suit Monday.

Fay Le Grow has finished moving to his cottage in the upper part of town.

There will only be two days of school this week, as the teachers will attend the institute at Weston the other three days. The Weston scholars and teachers will entertain all teachers of the county free of charge.

AFTER an anxious, fretful day, you need something which shall fit your tired body as a well worn slipper fits a tired foot. It must be something more than food or drink. If you want to taste Nirvana and forget all your tire and fatigue, take a cup of one of Chase & Sanborn's "Original Package" teas. These are the leaves which the natives themselves drink with all their vigor imprisoned. It's a very different drink from ordinary tea. Try a half-pound.
