GETTING READY FOR THE SPECIAL SESSION

Members of Congress Getting Into Their Winter Quarters at Washington-Congressman Hearst is Expected to Be a Lavish Entertainer,

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.-Mempers of congress are gradually drifting into Washington in anticipation of the opening of the special session

New York and several other members of wealth who are to take their seats at the approaching session, are expected to entertain on a lavish scale. For the first time in a number of years the speaker of the house is not a hotel resident. Congressman Cannon, who is to occupy the speaker's chair, is expected to entertain on a more elaborate scale than his immediate predecessors, whose social activities were somewhat hampered by the fact that they kept up no estab-lishment of their own.

A Good Name.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequaled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference next week. The old familiar faces are again to be seen about the hotels and other public places, while here and there a new member is pointed out to the old hubitues.

Though the social season will not get into full swing until the special session is over and the regular session begun next month, indications are already abundant that the capital is to have an unusually gay winter.

Congressman William R. Hearst of New York and several other members
