Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

O. R. & N. ENGINES

COMPOUNDS PROBABLY WILL BE REPLACED

Officials Do Not Deny that New Simple Engines Are Coming as Soon as the Factory Can Turn Them Out—Compounds May Be Remodeled.

All the engineers on the O. R. & N. are rejoicing in the news that new engines of the simple type have been ordered for the mountain division. The compounds now in service here, it is said, will either be changed to simple engines and retained in part at La Grande, or sent to The Dalles and Portland divisions.

The process of changing a compound to a simple engine costs about $1,600 each, for a new set of cylinders and saddle, and while it is not definitely determined to do this yet, it is thought to be the plan of the mechanical department.

The compounds now in service here are known as the Vanclain type, or four-cylinder compounds, and were manufactured by the Baldwin locomotive works of Philadelphia.

They are supposed to be more economical in the use of both water and fuel, and more powerful with the same steam pressure and size of cylinder, on account of the additional power they get from the second use of steam, through the compound principle, than a simple engine.

They require vastly more repair work than a simple engine, and on account of their size and the complicated apparatus in using steam through four cylinders instead of two, they get out of order with hard usage more readily than the simple engine.

One of the principal objections among engineers to the compound is the constant rattling or "pounding" of the side and main rods. The weight of the two immense pistons on each side is so great that it seems impossible for mechanics to take up and keep up all the lost motion and space on the pins.

Another objection to them is the constant leak of steam at the pistons, caused by the failure of all ordinary kinds of packing to make a tight joint. This steam, in the winter season, is very annoying, as it distracts the view and causes great annoyance in watching for signals and other features of operation of trains.

The compounds have been given a thorough test on the mountain, and while they are good engines from a mechanical standpoint, their operation has not proved as successful on the slow mountain runs as on more level runs.

There is no doubt about the order being placed for the new engines, and as soon as the factories can build them they will take the place of the present locomotives.

IDAHO STEAMER WRECKED.

Snake River Steamer Innaha, Crashed on Rocks and Loses Entire Cargo—Passengers Escape.

Lewiston, Nov. 11.—The Snake river steamer, Innaha, belonging to the Lewiston Southern & Navigation Company, and plying between this city and the Innaha mines, near the mouth of the Innaha river, was wrecked yesterday evening, by being dashed on the rocks in Mountain Sheep rapids, two miles below Eureka.

The cable caught in the capstan, causing the vessel to swing violently around, striking the rocks with great force, completely destroying the engines and disabling the boat in other ways.

The passengers were all rescued, but the cargo, valued at $8,000, was lost. The boat was valued at $25,000 and has been doing a heavy business since it was put on the upper river.

Ask Your Doctor

He will tell you—
That barley-malt is a half-digested food, as good as food can be.
That hops are an excellent tonic.
That the little alcohol in beer—only 3 1/2 per cent—is an aid to digestion.

But Purity is Essential

But he will tell you that beer must be protected from germs, and brewed in absolute cleanliness.

He'll say, too, that age is important, for age brings perfect fermentation. Without it, beer ferments on the stomach, causing biliousness.

Schlitz beer is brewed with all precautions. It is the recognized standard all the world over, because of its purity.
