The Number "Three" In the Bible. When the world was created, we find it and its surroundings composed of three elements air, water and handthe whole lighted by the sun, moor and stars. Asiam had three sons mentioned by name, and so dld Noah, the patriarch. Daniel was thrown into a den with three lions for the crime of praying three times. Shadrach, Me shach and Abednego were rescued from the fiery furnace. Job had three spe cial friends. There were three patri archs-Abraham, Isaac and Jacob Samuel was called three times: Elijal prostrated himself three times on the dead body of the child; Samson de ceived Delliah three times before she discovered the secret of his great power, and the Ten Commandments were delivered on the third day.

Jonah was three days and nights in the whale's belly. "Simon, lovest ther me?" was repeated three times. Pan makes mention of the three graces faith, hope and charity. The famous allegorical dreams of the baker and butler were to come to pass in three days. Then we have the holy trinity-Father, Son and Holy Ghost; the sacred letters on the cross were three in number, they being I. H. S.; so also the famous Roman motto was composed or three words-viz. Sleight of Hand Polsoning

A very curious item in toxicological fore I chanced to light upon, wrote George Augustus Sala in one of his letters, may be called the feat of poison ing by sleight of hand. You were lead ous of a lady, and you wished to kill Well, you asked her to lunch, and you caused a very nice peach to be served at dessert. You cut the fruit with a golden knife, one side of the blade of which was endued with a deadly poison. You presented the poisoned half of the peach to the lady, who are it with much relish and then dropped down dead.

The wholesome half you are your-self and laughed in your sleeve and went on slicing more peaches for the indies of whom you were jealous till you were found out and broken on the wheel. Aye, there's the rub! What high old times we might have, to be sure, but for that plaguy contingency of being found out!

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Enstachian Tobe.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Peafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are
