PRIZE DRAWING TONIGHT.

Park Theater Will Give Away Its Regular Prizes Tonight—Winning Number Must Be Present.

The Park theater will give away the usual elegant premiums tonight. The tickets winning the prizes must be present in the theater at the time of the drawing. This will be the last chance to see the great Patricolo trio. The bill closing with tonight's performance has been exceptionally strong, and many will take this opportunity to see it.

The professional bill for next week promises to be one of extraordinary merit. The pretty and vivacious Melnoit Sisters, Boyle and Lewis, comedy sketch artists, and L. C. ... monologists, and beautiful moving and dissolving views, and new illustrated songs, are on the program. The attendance at the park is constantly increasing, and the management is making every effort to merit the liberal patronage.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

One Pendleton Firm Has Already Received Two Carloads.

M. A. Rader, the enterprising furniture dealer, has placed his Christmas announcement in this issue of the East Oregonian.

Mr. Rader enters upon the Christmas season with a larger, better selected and more complete stock of useful goods suitable for gifts than ever before. He has just received two full cars of late, new fashionable furniture, rugs, pictures, carpets, etc., and is prepared to satisfy all demands.

Rader has established the fact in the minds of the public that if anything is needed in this line he will supply it, and at prices that are very low. He is making a present to patrons of his store who buy a bill of goods of him, and is giving them a beautiful rug or framed picture. Read his unique advertisement in this issue.

NO MORE PAIN.

Medical Lake Salts Mfg. Co., Spokane, Wash.

Dear Sirs—My home is at Lewiston, Idaho, and for a number of years I have suffered with a severe case of milk leg. On June 21 I came to this place to try the efficacy of Medical Lake water for relief. At this writing, while a cure has not been effected, all the swelling and soreness is gone from the limb, and I do not suffer any pain, and feel that in this respect I have gained great relief. The disease is of long standing and I know if a cure is to be had at all, treatment must be continued. Physicians have failed to do me any good.

THE LEADERS

How Greeley Learned to Read.
 By a singular adaptation to the changes of motion on his mother's part while spinning Horace Greeley when a youngster acquired the unwonted quality of reading with the book in almost any position, sideways or upside down, as readily as in the usual fashion without at that time thinking it anything unusual.

Aching Voids.
 "Brooks," said Rivers, "that's the second time I've heard you use the phrase 'aching void.' I wish you would tell me how a void can ache."
 "Well," said Brooks, reflecting a moment, "not to speak of a hollow tooth, don't you sometimes have the headache?"—Chicago Tribune.

There Was No Music.
 "What is the greatest fib that ever impressed itself on your experience, Snapper?"
 "Well, by all odds, the worst one I ever heard was that your quartet perpetrated last night when they came round to the house and sang, 'There's Music in the Air.'"—Chicago Tribune.
